MONEY OR MARRY.

A Bloody Romance on a California Ranche.

From the Marysville Appeal of July 20, we take the annexed details of a tragedy which occurred at Honcut, below Bangor, in Butte county, recently.

"It appears that an old man named Shirley and Henry Price are neighbors, and that the latter has a daughter named Eunice, about seventeen years of age, whom Shirley wished to marry. The old man continued to press his suit, and to gain favor had in some way become the creditor of the family in the sum of about forty-four dollars. Shirley's affections were not reciprocated by the daughter Eunice, and the old man, it seems, resolved upon desperate measures to bring his courtship to an end. He therefore, on Monday last, armed himself with a revolver and two or three knives, and went to the house of Mr. Price, and demanded the payment of the sum of money due him—about forty-four dollars. Approaching the daughter Eunice, Shirley said he wanted the money due him or her. Eunice informed Shirley that they could not pay him the money, as they had none, but that he could take a flock of turkeys which she had raised. The reply being unsatisfactory and a rejection of his suit, Shirley drew a revolver, leveled it at her head, and pulled the trigger. Fortunately the chamber failed to revolve far enough, and the hammer did not explode the cap. The father and a negro boy, who were present, immediately interfered to prevent the assassination, and a sharp tussle ensued between the three, during which Price received a cut in one of his hands from a knife which he seized by the blade. Finally the two overpowered and disarmed Shirley, and upon promise that he would remain quiet, he was released and allowed to get up off the floor. But as he raised up Shirley drew another knife, which was concealed on his person, and thrust it into the right side of Mr. Price, inflicting a serious wound.

"Her father being slain Eunice slipped out the back door with the determination of saving her life, if possible, by flight to the house of Wm. Moore, distant about one mile. In the meantime a younger sister, seeing the necessity of help, and needing assistance for the care of her father, jumped upon Shirley's horse, which was standing by the door, and rode off to the residence of Richard Flood, and a Mrs. Norris, about a mile distant in another direction from which Eunice had started. Shirley soon discovered the route Eunice had taken, and started off in pursuit of her. Seeing that she was a long way ahead of him, he returned to the house to get his horse. Finding it gone, he mounted a mule, but the animal backed him off and he was obliged to resume the pursuit on foot—the frightened Eunice all this time fleeing toward the residence of William Moore, with all her physical strength. Shirley, no doubt, wished to overtake her in the field, and there assassinate or force a pledge of marriage from her. Fortunately for Miss Price, she reached within hearing distance of Mr. Moore before the desperate and bloodthirsty villain overtook her. He, however, stopped her within about forty yards of the house, when she cried out, addressing Mr. Moore, "Don't let him kill me."

"Mr. Moore seemed to lose no time in comprehending the situation, and immediately came out of the house with a shot-gun. But Shirley and the trembling Eunice were partially entwined together, and M. Moore dared not shoot at the old grey headed monster for fear that he would wound the girl. Shirley was supporting the fainting and frightened Eunice by the waist on his left arm, while in his right hand he held a large and shining knife with the point aimed at her heart. Mr. Moore advanced on Shirley and dealt him a heavy blow over his head, but it did not knock him down. The gun, however, was discharged by the concussion, the contents passing over the head of Shirley. Then commenced another struggle between the two men for the possession of the gun, as Shirley seized it as the blow was struck. The parties fought for some time desperately, and during which Shirley tried to stab Mr. Moore, but he escaped with a long cut in his pantaloons, near the right thigh. The struggle continued till Moore picked up a rock and gave Shirley a heavy blow upon the head, which ended the contest. Moore then tied the hands of his helpless antagonist, and led him at the end of the rope to Bangor for the purpose of delivering him to the justice of the peace. Finding this officer absent, Shirley was taken to Wyandotte, where he was examined and sent to the Oroville jail, to answer before the next grand jury. Dr. Vance, of Oroville was called to examine the wound of Mr. Price, and pronounced it necessarily mortal. Price was a widower, his wife dying about a year ago. Though poor, the family is respectable, and the two daughters much esteemed by their neighbors. Shirley is an old man, aged about sixty years, and is the possessor of some property. We understand that he has heretofore borne the reputation of a peaceable and quiet citizen. Our informant says the people in that neighborhood contemplate awarding Mr. Moore a gold medal, as a token of his courage and the victory he achieved."

ON THE WING.

Homeward Bound — Greenville, Centreville, Maysville, Ringgold, Whitesville, Marchand, Richmond, Home.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

July 29, 1874.

We laid aside our pencil at Titusville, and have rested for several days on territory referred to in former letters. We have left the railway and are traveling in our private carriage. We left the B. and E. turnpike at Clarion, and traveled several miles southeastwardly through a farming district to Greenville, a village of several hundred people. They have three churches, Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist, two hotels, several stores, shops, etc., one flouring mill, one lumber mill. The town is about as large as it was ten years ago.

From here two miles to Centreville, a small village, also in a farming community.

From here six miles through a hilly district to Maysville on the bank of Redbank Creek. This village was nearly all upset by a hurricane about twenty years ago. The trees in the neighboring woods are nearly all stubs, from about 15 to 30 feet high. The village, though small, seems to be growing. There are a goodly number of new buildings. Bennett's branch railway passes through it. This is the secret of its prosperity. Redbank is a large, vigorous stream, and affords good water power at this point, which is only partly utilized. About two miles from here down stream lies Millvale, quite a flourishing young town, and a little further down the town of Bethlehem. The railway is developing this valley and making it a desirable place.

From Maysville six miles over the Jefferson country hills and we are at Ringgold, a neat little village of several hundred people, with the usual supply of stores, hotels, shops, and a Union church. There is a good farming and fruit country for miles around. From Ringgold ten miles eastward to Whitesville, in "Round Bottom," near the Mahoning. It is a small place, and grows but little. Five miles, a little southeast, bring us to Marchand in Indiana county, also a small village of several hundred people. It has grown some in the last few years, is beautifully located on the Indiana and Punxsutawney road, and may become considerable of a town in time. It is surrounded by a good farming country.

From Marchand three miles to Richmond on Little Mahoning creek. This locality is rough and stony and the village is quite scattered, though it has two churches, several stores, shops, etc., one flouring mill and several sawmills. From here we have ten miles through a hilly district to Gettysburg, a neat and growing village of several hundred people, of which we have previously written. From here six miles to Cherry Tree, "the point of beginning," being upwards of four hundred miles. We found good crops everywhere, except the grass in Indiana county. Dry weather caused it to be short.

Lumbermen's Convention.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 30.—A Lumbermen's Convention is in session here, attended by large numbers of delegates from various parts of Quebec and Ontario. Hon. John Hamilton, of Hawkesburg, is President, and Mr. Lord, of Hull, Secretary. A resolution was adopted recommending the formation of a Dominion Lumbermen's Association, and a committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws.

The convention resumed its proceedings to day. The committee recommended that the association be incorporated at the next session of the Dominion Parliament; also recommended that a committee be appointed before the close of the meeting to investigate and report fully with regard to the best practicable means of bringing the supply of lumber and timber into accord with the demand, check the waste of valuable raw material now going on by excessive production, and add that they have an opinon from each member of the committee as to the remedy to apply to retrieve the present depressed state of the markets, both in the United States and Quebec, and they were unanimous in the opinion that the exigency of the situation demands that production for the remainder of the present season and ensuing winter should be reduced to the lowest possible point, and with a view to this end they declared themselves willing to enter into an agreement to reduce by one-half the usual production, either by shutting down mills or curtailing their operations in the woods, this to apply to the manufacture of square timber as well as lumber.

Hon. James Shead, in seconding the adoption of the report, said the time had arrived when they must unite together to prevent over-production, which would result in bankruptcy. He believed that the production of one-half the quantity each year would result in more real profit than sending out large quantities as at present.

The report was adopted. The members of the committee then adopted and signed an agreement to shut down their mills and reduce the usual production by one-half either by that means or by curtailing operations during the ensuing winter, this agreement to apply to manufacturers of square timber as well as lumber firms which during the present season made only one raft, who are to be allowed to make one raft if it is not more than 120,000 feet.

The Secretary was instructed to correspond with lumber associations of the United States, and ascertain if they will co-operate with Canadian lumbermen in a general curtailment of production.

BY MAIL.

Circulators of False News in a London Prison.

Private cable advices from London state that the parties charged with issuing and circulating alleged false news in relation to the Erie Railway Company through a so-called Erie circular, and whose examination has been pending for some days, have been committed to the Bailey for trial. The offense specifically charged is that the defendant, R. Y. Marsden, a clerk for a Mr. McHenry, of the Winchester buildings, wrote a letter to the London managers of the Erie Company and circulated it on English and foreign stock exchanges, to the effect that the directors were engaged in surreptitiously manufacturing fictitious shares for the purpose of carrying the election, just as Fisk and Gould did, and intended to send them to Europe for sale in the stock markets. At the preliminary examination, the counsel for the company said the property of the Erie shareholders some weeks before was worth £3,500,000 more than it was at that time. The counsel for the defendant, at the same preliminary examination, said that they were prepared to justify everything that had been written.

The Revolution in Cuba.

The Cubans in New York have received news by way of Havana, to the effect that the patriot troops have destroyed a number of plantations in the Trinidad valley, and that planters are abandoning their property there for fear of being captured, and because the Spanish Government cannot give the necessary protection. The President of the Cuban Republic has ordered Captain Carepio to destroy everything he can lay hands on. Cabo, a negro captain, at the head of a number of emancipated negroes, is in the neighborhood of Cienfuegos, wrecking plantations and enlisting slaves and coolies in the patriot ranks. A general uprising of negroes under Cabo is daily expected. The Cubans have captured several military maps of the Trocha, which show the position of the forts, pitfalls, picket stations, &c.

Rochefort's Work in London.

A London letter says: Rochefort's work is going on at a good pace. If you visit him at his hotel, you are likely to find him surrounded by four or five secretaries, all as busy as himself. It is not difficult to guess the intended destination of his writings, but of the means by which they are to reach it, it may not be prudent to say much.

THE INDIAN WAR.

A Battle Fought Near Jacksboro, Texas.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, July 30.—The News' Fort Worth special says Col. Stewart, a member of the Legislature, just returned from Wise county, brings a report of another fight near Jacksboro on Friday last between the Montague Rangers, a body of the Tenth United States Cavalry and Indians, the latter numbering five hundred. The Rangers lost twelve killed and several wounded. The cavalry lost several men and their commander killed. The report says the combined forces were driven back to Jacksboro.

STATE BREVITIES.

A YOUNG LADY in West Huntingdon, last week one day, while picking cherries, fell from the tree and broke her back.

W. L. GEARY, the late Governor's son, a recent graduate of West Point, has been assigned to the Twenty first Infantry.

ON Wednesday night of last week the house and barn, and nearly all the contents of both, including crops, of Joseph Hite, of Bedford township, Cambria county, were burned.

ON Monday evening last, the wife of Judge Barrett, of Clearfield, fell from her chair, while sitting in her parlor, and instantly expired. She was aged about sixty years. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause.

FOR the benefit of our country readers who are interested in the matter, we reprint the following: A general law passed by the last Legislature fixes the pay of road and bridge jurors and viewers at $2 per day, with mileage at ten cents per mile, for each mile necessarily traveled to the nearest point on the line of road to be viewed or reviewed, or the line or lines to be run.

ON FRIDAY, July 24, a fire broke out in the extensive steam saw-mill and handle factory of Mr. P. J. Beebe, in the village of Little's Corners, Crawford county, and in about ten minutes the mill, a dwelling and a large shed were entirely destroyed. The fire communicated to another house used for storage purposes, and it and all its contents were burned. Mr. Beebe's loss is over $12,000, on which there is an insurance of $7,000.

ON Sunday morning Mr. James Berryhill started from Thomas Hunter's, where he had been at work, to go to Burgettstown to church. Meeting with a freight train when he came to the crossing at Pinemore, he attempted to get in the caboose; but the train moving rapidly he fell, the hind truck passing over his right thigh and arm, and otherwise so injuring him that he died in about two hours.

A RAILROAD meeting will be held in the Court House in Waynesburg, on Monday evening, the 17th of August next, for the purpose of taking the initiatory steps for the construction of a Narrow Gauge Railroad, to connect with the Chartiers Railway at or near Washington, and at which time the books will be opened to receive subscriptions. This will be followed by other meetings all along the line.

THE large frame barn of Mr. Peter Wimer, of Worth township, Butler county, was struck by the lightning on last Sabbath, 26th, and with 318 dozen of good wheat, a large amount of hay, and many farming implements, was totally consumed. No insurance. Also the barn of Thomas Robinson, of Cranberry township, same county, was struck, and with a large amount of grain, was consumed on the same day.

DEXTER WALKER, aged 22 years, recently went to the residence of his uncle, Mr. J. J. Preston, in Mead township, Crawford county, for the purpose of going into business with a son of Mr. P. On the 19th inst., young Walker loaded a rifle to shoot a weasel, and in firing the gun it bursted from being overloaded. A portion of the breech pin entered the forehead of young Walker and lodged in the back of his head. He lingered until Wednesday morning and then died.

MR. FREDERICK SHAFFER, an aged citizen of Brady township, Clearfield county, was killed by a passing train on the Bennett's Branch Railroad, on Friday morning, July 24th. The injuries sustained, and which caused his death, were a severe contusion on the side of the head and the breaking of an arm. Mr. Shaffer was one of the early settlers in that part of the county, and aged about eighty years. His sudden and tragic death is deeply mourned by his many friends and acquaintances.

MERCER COUNTY ELOPEMENT.

Separation of Husband and Wife—Departure of the Husband and a Young Woman for Oregon.

From the Greenville Advance we learn that an elopement took place one day last week, which was remarkable in more than one respect. A husband and wife in Mercer county failed to live agreeably together. The wife became jealous of the husband, and not without provocation, on the account of the attention paid by the husband to a young lady who resided near to their unhappy home. The affair culminated in alleged criminal intimacy on the part of the husband and the young lady, and the voluntary separation of the husband and wife and the amicable division of the effects of the household, the proceeds of the sale of a farm, and the children, four in number, one being an adopted child. Following this adjustment of affairs came the elopement of the husband and the young lady above referred to, with the knowledge and apparent consent of the wife. The mother and friends of the young lady soon became aware of what had happened, and procuring the proper legal counsel and authority for the arrest of the fleeing couple, followed and arrested them at Greenville. They were detained over twenty-four hours and every effort possible was used on the part of the young lady's friends to induce her to return home with her mother, but all failed, and in the most positive manner she declared that if she were taken back forcibly she would either escape or commit suicide in less than twenty-four hours. Finally so well satisfied were her friends that she was making no idle threat, that they refused to take the necessary steps to take her back and the guilty pair, accompanied by two of the children, took passage on train No. 3, on the A. & G. W. R. R. on Friday evening en route for Oregon.

LATEST OIL ITEMS.

It is reported that the Jennings well, Petrolia, struck good sand Wednesday morning and made some flow, but drilling was stopped until next day.

The "boss gusher" got down Tuesday to about a thousand barrels. Wednesday morning it was agitated with the tools and to-day is flowing over eleven hundred.

PRENTICE'S well, on the Webster Barnhart farm, begins to weaken and will not pool more two hundred barrels in the tank a day. It is located in the ravine extending north of the famous Wyatt No. 2, that flowed twelve hundred a day for several weeks last fall.

DIVINER No. 4, on the Diviner farm, below Millerstown, which began flowing Tuesday afternoon, was doing about three hundred and fifty Wednesday. It is located southeast of the former strikes on this property.

The production of the entire Millerstown district shows a marked decline within the last thirty days, notwithstanding the new strikes. Lyle & Ralston struck a dry hole Tuesday on Ralston farm, near Troutman. Another well on the same farm, owned by McKay and others, was struck the same day and is doing about one hundred barrels.

The production of the Modoc district shows a decline of thirty per cent. as compared with June.

Suicide in Greene County.

A sad case of suicide occurred in Morris township, Greene county, on Saturday, the 18th inst. A young man named Wm. Breese, a son of Mr. Israel Breese, committed suicide by hanging himself to a beam in the barn, by attaching a check line to it, and about his neck, and then pushing himself from a load of hay, which he had mounted. His wife, to whom he had been married but a few months, was working in the yard at the time, and hearing a strange noise supposed it came from the house, and proceeded there only to find it empty; she then hastened to the barn, and discovered her husband hanging as described. Being unable to reach him the frantic woman was compelled to go a fourth of a mile for assistance, and before help could reach him, life had fled. The unfortunate man had been for some weeks prior to his death, subject to fits of temporary insanity, and was no doubt suffering from mental abberation when he destroyed himself.—Waynesburg Messenger.

THE BROOKLYN SCANDAL.

Mrs. Tilton Refuses to See Her Husband.

Mr. Beecher Interviewed by a Reporter.

NEW YORK, July 30, 1874.

Extra Session of the Committee.

The Plymouth Church Investigating Committee had an extra session yesterday afternoon, to hasten the conclusion of the inquiry. The committee are getting heartily sick of the sluggish investigation, besides thinking that delay is injudicious to complete the vindication of Beecher, who is said to be rapidly preparing testimony for the committee.

Beecher's Wanderings.

Last evening he walked among the trees on Columbia Heights with his hands behind him, and his white slouch hat drawn over his forehead. He takes his daily exercise in this way. He allows no approach to the topic of the scandal in conversation.

Mrs. Tilton Refuses to See Her Husband.

Mr. Ovington said last evening that Theodore Tilton had called at his house three times since his wife's separation from him, and begged to see her, and that every time she refused to see him. Ovington added: "I think that his power over his wife is so great that if she had permitted him to see her that he might have forced her even to accompany her to his house on Livingstone street again. Mr. Tilton's power over his wife is as great in her presence to-day as it ever was. If he could see her she would be obliged to obey him." Tilton spent last evening with his counsel, and early in the evening Mrs. Tilton sat at Mr. Ovington's piano playing "Home, Sweet Home."

Beecher Interviewed.

A reporter of the Brooklyn Union called on Mr. Beecher at his residence last night. The conversation between Mr. Beecher and the reporter was of a confidential character. Mr. Beecher, while seated at his ease, talked glibly and laughed heartily at times. Mr. Beecher intimated to the reporter that his friends might rely on his discretion and his truth. It was enough that he had for the present. He was prepared to admit that his sky was not as clear as it ought to be. There were hazy clouds in the horizon, and these darkened toward the zenith, but the sun of truth would in its own good time burst forth and dissipate them. He was preparing his refutation of all the charges that had been made against him. He felt strong in his own heart. He felt that he had done wrong to no one. He might have been inconsiderate, even indiscreet. That came of his own impulsiveness. When his story had been told, when his plain, unvarnished tale had been prepared and given to the public, he would calmly await what it, and more particularly his true friends, had to say, and by it he was quite prepared to stand or fall. He felt himself innocent of an intention to wrong any one, and with that feeling ever present in his heart he was prepared to come boldly before the world and battle down an army of scandal mongers.

Another Meeting of the Committee.

The Investigating Committee met again to-night. Mr. Francis Moulton has not yet returned to the city, and the committee are anxiously expecting his arrival, as Mr. Beecher is unwilling to testify until all the evidence is in.

DAYTON.

Reunion of Ohio Veterans—Speech by Governor Allen—He has an Eye on the White House.

DAYTON, July 30.—The reunion of four veteran regiments at the Soldiers' Home to-day drew a great crowd from the surrounding country. The city was full of people, and the largest crowd ever on the Home grounds in one day made an animated spectacle. Gov. Allen was escorted to the Home by a committee of citizens, where he was welcomed with a Governor's salute from a battery, and then was introduced by Col. Brown, Governor of the Home, to the people, by whom he was warmly received. He spoke some forty minutes. A large portion of the speech was patriotic in tone, much of it devoted to the war with Mexico, but the rebellion was tolerably neatly skipped. Only a "thin" allusion was made to it. The Governor was conducted about the Home, which he heartily eulogized, dined with the officers of the Ninety-fourth Regiment, and in the evening returned to the city, where he was serenaded. He responded briefly, and held a reception.

The reunion of the veterans was a picnic without speech-making foolishness, and was a most pleasant occasion. The general impression derived from the Governor's speech is that he is not insensible to the possibilities of his being a candidate for President. Probably ten thousand Grangers were in the city to-day.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Suspended People's Fire Insurance Company.

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—The circumstances connected with the closing of the People's Fire Insurance Company are that the State Commissioner of Insurance, K. M. Fisher, last week discovered certain fraudulent transactions in the management of the company, and immediately directed the Attorney General to begin legal proceedings to close up the company, and notified the insurance officials of other States of the fact. Prindle, the alleged defaulting manager, learned this, and gathered up all the available assets and fled to parts unknown.

Third race, all ages, 1¾ miles; won by Galway. Time, 3:17.

CLEVELAND, July 30.—About six thousand people were present at the race to-day. The sky became cloudy before the first race was called, which made the day splendid for out-door sport. The first race was for the 2:40 class; eleven starters, with Magnolia the prime favorite, and Nashville Girl second. The race was won in the third, fourth and fifth heats by Nashville Girl, Magnolia taking the second, Lady Turpin the third, and Lady Hays the fourth money. In the first heat the horses got away well together, Root having the pole. Root led to the half mile pole, close pressed by Reserve and Magnolia, the latter taking the lead on the back turn, coming in an easy winner by five lengths, and the others in the order named: Root, Reserve, Hays, Turpin, Nashville Girl, Frank Membrino, Kate Tearaway, Judd, and Philadelphia Boy. The second heat was won easily by Magnolia, Nashville Girl second, a length and a half behind, and the others as named: Turpin, Frank Reserve, Root, Judd, Hays and Kate Tearaway; Philadelphia Boy distanced. The next three heats were won easily by Nashville Girl, the strife being for the second, third and fourth money.

5th heat	.37	1:13¾	1:50½	2:30¾

At the end of the fourth heat of this race Nashville Girl sold in the pools 100 to 25 against the field.

The next race was the 2:26 class, with seven entries, six starters, Joker being drawn. Membrino Gift was the favorite at large odds before the race, and at the close of the third heat sold 100 to 70 against the field. The race was won in the first, second and fourth heats by Fred Hooper, Gift taking the second and Thomas L. Young the third money. The first heat was exciting. The horses got away after considerable scoring, Hooper going to the front, Gift close by, with Royal John third, Young fourth, Kelly fifth, and Grace sixth. This order was maintained until the home stretch, when Membrino forced Hooper off his feet, and passing under the wire first by a head, John third, Kelly, Young and Grace as named. The heat was given to Hooper because of Membrino's running. The audience was evidently against the favorite and greeted the decision with cheers. In the second heat John took the lead, Hooper and Gift close to him, with the others trailing. On the home stretch John fell back to the third place, when an exciting race took place between the favorite and Hooper, the latter winning by a length, Gift, John, Kelly and Young in the order named, Grace distanced. In the third heat the horses were given the word, with Kelly five lengths back. Hooper held the lead until reaching the home stretch, when he was passed by the favorite, who won by one-half a length, Hooper second, Young, John, and Kelly as named. The fourth heat was a sharp one. Hooper took the lead from the start, Young second, John fourth, and Kelly fifth. This order was maintained throughout, Hooper winning the heat by one-half length, Young second, Gift, John and Kelly in the order named.

The day closed with a running race, mile heats, 3 in 5; seven entries; 6 starters, Granger drawn. Lady Washington was selling as the favorite before the race, Spendthrift being reported lame. In the first heat all the horses got off well, except Hartland, who was six or eight lengths behind. At the one-half mile the horses were close together, Spendthrift slightly ahead. On the back turn he increased his lead, and won the heat by four lengths, Boston Lady, Washington, Hartland, Port Leonard and Planter in the order named. The second heat was a good send-off, the horses keeping in a bunch till they reached the home stretch, when Washington, Spendthrift, Boston and Leonard made strong efforts for the lead, Boston winning by a neck, Spendthrift second, Washington close third, with Leonard half a length in the rear, Hartland four lengths back, and Planter distanced. At the end of this heat Spendthrift was drawn on account of lameness. In the third heat the horses got a good send off, and ran in a bunch around the entire track, coming down the home stretch under the whip, Washington winning by half a length, Hartland second, Boston third, and Leonard fourth. Port Leonard and Hartland were now out of the race according to the rules, neither of them having taken a heat. This cut the field down to two, Boston and Lady Washington. In the fourth heat the horses snapped to the three quarter turn, when Boston apparently quit the Lady, coming in an easy winner, Boston barely closed. At a quarter past seven, it being quite dark, the Judge decided to finish the race to-morrow.

The following is a summary of the four heats run:

Lady Washington	3	3	1	1
Tom Boston	2	1	3	2

To-morrow's programme embraces the 2:31 race, with eleven entries, and the 2:20 race, with a field of eight of the finest trotters in the country—Gazelle, Camors, Red Cloud, Sensation, Nellie, Henry, Gloster and St. James, the meeting closing with a running race, two mile dash, with nine entries. So far the meeting has been very successful. In the pools to night Red Cloud is selling the favorite 40 to 50.

BREVITIES.

Paragraphic Pencilings of Passing Events.

....The Mechanic Steam Fire Engine Company will occupy their new house next Tuesday.

....Robert Foy, an employee at Hartupee's foundry, had his foot mashed on Wednesday afternoon by a "pillar block," which fell upon it.

....The meeting announced for last evening to be held at the corner of Webster and Washington streets, was postponed for a few evenings.

....The check valve for the main pipe leading to the hill above the Allegheny Water Works was taken over yesterday, and will be put in place at once.

....Last evening the Library Committee of the Allegheny Board of Control held a meeting and decided upon some needed improvements in the Library.

....It is stated that the sub-Committee of the Finance Committee will advise the reduction of the salaries of all employes of the city from ten to twenty-five per cent.

....Yesterday Robert Pounds, charged with larceny, was released from jail by giving bail in the sum of $1,000 to appear for trial. His bondsmen were J. C. Kiser and J. L. Clark.

....A man named Minninger was cut with a razor on Wednesday night by a man named Goss, during a fight on East street, Allegheny. Goss was arrested and gave bail for a hearing.

....Wm. Meninger, a notorious character, was arrested last night by officer McIntyre, for raising a disturbance at his brother's house on Ohio street. Meninger goes up six months to the workhouse.

....A little boy yesterday morning while jumping from a Pleasant Valley street car was knocked down by a passing wagon and had one of his legs run over. Fortunately no bones were broken, though he sustained serious bruises.

....William McClurg, who was arrested on Wednesday night by Detective Herr for passing a counterfeit $10 note in the saloon of Jasper Spencer, was yesterday discharged by U. S. Commissioner Bailey, there not being any evidence against him.

....The flood by washing away the bridges and doing other damage to the tracks on the Chartiers Railroad has compelled a cessation of travel over that road for a few days. The gangs are at work, however, and in a few days, it is thought, trains will be running as usual.

....No collectors having been appointed for the Twenty-sixth ward, or at least none who reside in the District, we have been requested to state that the following gentlemen are authorized to receive subscriptions and request that they will proceed at once to canvass the ward for aid for the sufferers:—C. J. Schulz, David Chess, James Bryce.

....Says the Latrobe Advance: "Mrs. Hodgson, wife of Mathew Hodgson, a coal miner residing in this place, in looking over Monday evening's paper, at an account of the recent flood in that vicinity, was horrorstruck to find the names of her father, mother, and six others, constituting the entire family, among those drowned. They resided along Saw Mill Run. Her father's name was Isaac Turopp. She went to Pittsburgh on the express yesterday morning.

....Yesterday morning the Register admitted to probate the will of Henry Klingensmith, late of Britton Station, Wilkins township. The decedent bequeaths to his wife all his property. At her death, twenty dollars are to be paid to Elizabeth, a daughter; five hundred dollars to Ellen, a daughter; five hundred dollars to Samuel, a son, and the residue of the estate to be disposed of in such way as the wife may see proper. The will is dated January 1, 1874, and Mrs. Caroline Klingensmith is sole executrix.

....Pawn brokers are a useful, perhaps in large cities, a necessary class. Some of them in this city are known to be honorable and fair dealing men, but some of them display for sale "handy billies" and other implements for which none but rogues have any use. To deal in such articles should work the forfeiture of license. They nearly all draw a large trade in pistols to carry, which is against a law of the land. The facility for obtaining them is a public evil. Perhaps the pistol trade must be tolerated, but to keep for sale the implements for night assault and burglary should be held as disgraceful and dangerous.

....The Beaver Valley News records a painful affair which occurred in Fallston, on Tuesday evening, by which a little son of Mr. Henry Blanchard lost his life. It seems that the little fellow was playing around the mills on the race, the last time he was seen being near the keg factory a short time before the usual quitting time or closing of factories. No particular attention was paid him, no one apprehending any danger to him, until he failed to make his appearance at home, when a search was instituted for him. Being suspicious that he might have fallen in the race, the water was let out, when his body was discovered, life being entirely extinct. The little boy was only about six or seven years of age, which makes it still more painful, as he was unable to take care of himself when once in the water.

PERSONAL.

⁂The Beaver Valley News says "the Rev. Mr. Kincaid, of Pittsburgh, is spending the Summer at Kenwood, his favorite resort."

⁂Max Schamberg, the well-known proprietor of Schamberg's European Agency, is rusticating at the Ocean House, Long Branch.

THEY have a poet in Newport who thus advertises the climate at that favorite resort:

Blest is your lot, who draw life's breath
Here, in this tempered island air,
Where a soft sunlight quickeneth,
That "shines serene, but doth not glare.

ROCHEFORT is hatching mischief in London. His brood is designed, however, for the French market.

THE abducted boy, Charlie Ross, was found at Hamburgh yesterday, and his captor is under arrest. We now hope he will receive the punishment he deserves. The crime of child stealing is peculiarly open to reprobation, and should receive the severest punishment the law will admit of.

THE efforts to fasten upon President Grant an expression of desire to be a candidate for a third term have come to grief General Gordon, of Georgia, was made to say, by an interview, that the President had made such acknowledgment to him The General has since published a card in which he states that he is not on intimate terms with the President, and that no such conversation as that alleged ever took place. So this attempt is disposed of.

THE effort of a person totally disconnected with the Beecher-Tilton scandal to draw the case into the courts will probably prove a failure. Tilton has certainly not libelled the complainant, and it will be a new experience in law if a person not interested directly shall be able to make a case, and call at will witnesses. The palpable effect of such a case will be to enable those who may wish to open out a scandal, to accuse a party, and call witnesses and make them testify. New York and Brooklyn courts are curious institutions, but if they allow this, it will be hard to limit the scope of their operations. The case should not be entertained.

THEY understand how to do some things in England, as well as here. Young Prince Leopold has reached an age when the good Queen Victoria thinks a pension of $75,000 a year would contribute to that young gentleman's comfort. But Sir Charles Dilke and others were likely to ask some unkind questions. To save these, the young man suddenly becomes seriously ill—at least the illness is very opportune,—and so questions are moderated, and opposition lessened. All this, however, does not prevent a deep feeling, outside the House of Commons, against the extravagant pensions bestowed on useless Princes of the blood.

THE controversy between McMahon and the Assembly in France is growing interesting. The President claims that executive power has been irrevocably placed in his hands for seven years, and that he has all the laws he needs for the government of the people. All he wants is the passage of the constitutional laws, looking to the organization of his powers, and then he thinks the Assembly should adjourn. That mercurial body declines either to adjourn or to pass the desired laws. It is intimated that the patience of the Marshal may yet be exhausted, and in that event a dissolution of the Assembly in a very informal manner is among the immediate probabilties.

IT is gratifying to notice the friendly and sympathetic character of the references to the disastrous flood, which wrought so much ruin in Allegheny. The fact that it was one of those visitations which prescience could not provide against is fully recognized, and the propriety of bestowing sympathy and aid is felt. Our own citizens are freely contributing to the fund for the relief of the unfortunate, but after all is done that can be, there is still much misery that will be but partially relieved. The frequent recurrence of vast disasters, beginning with the Chicago fire, has drawn largely on the benevolence and generosity of the people, and the present is not a time of business prosperity, such as prompts to generous giving; yet withal much has been done, and more will be.

IF THE principles embodied in the call of the Democratic State Central Committee in Illinois differ in any essential particular, from those entertained by the Communists of Paris, we will be glad to see this difference pointed out. Free commerce, individual liberty, "rigid restriction of national and State Governments to the legitimate domains of political power, by excluding them from all executive and legislative action, and intermeddling with the affairs of society, whereby monopolies are fostered, privileged classes aggrandized, and individual freedom oppressively and unnecessarily restrained." This, while quite ambiguous, aims at non-interference by Government with absolute freedom of action. Admit this, and we have the Commune. Yet this is the latest outgiving of the Democracy.

THE surroundings of the so-called grasshopper plague in Minnesota, are curious. There are there, as elsewhere, ambitious politicians who think that Congress and the United States Senate afford an opportunity for honor not elsewhere attainable. The Governor, Davis, thought that a proper display of energy and sympathy would not injure his political fortunes, and so appealed to the several unafflicted counties to give aid, by a donation of county funds, to the desolated districts. He also appealed to the general Government to supply rations instead of arms, to the amount of $8,000,—the sum due the State in muskets. But the Governor was careful not to allow State funds to be used for the benefit of the sufferers. The outcry is now made, that the desolation was not at all equal to what the Governor represented, and that his whole design in the course pursued, was to make political capital. Feeling runs high, and it is quite probable that the Governor overstepped the bounds of prudence in developing his plan of relief.

THE Brussels Peace Congress, now in session, should not be confounded with the efforts of societies, in this country and in Europe, to entirely prevent war, by means of a system of international courts through which disputes may be arbitrated and settled. The professed object of the Brussels Congress is to mitigate the horrors of war, and to prevent warfare applying to the high seas. Were its aim to be realized, it would do away with the necessity for large naval armaments, and thus relieve much of the expense now borne by several of the great powers of Europe. England has refused to commit herself to the object of the Congress for this reason. She relies, very largely, in case of war, upon her naval armament, and so refuses to be bound to diminish its effective strength. Yet the idea of relieving the high seas from the operations of war is not a new one. This country has favored it, and there are many considerations in its favor. The oceans of the globe are neutral, and there is no good reason why vessels trading on them should not be free from capture, especially if engaged in peaceful trade. Were this idea adopted, there would be less need for naval vessels, and much expense would be saved. And could the idea of International Courts, for the maintenance of peace be accepted, large standing armies might be disbanded, and millions of consumers changed into producers, thus enhancing the world's wealth, and diminishing its expense.

WE NOTICE in the Harrisburg Telegraph, an article commendatory of Auditor General Allen, clipped from Our National Progress. The points made are that his office has been administered in an honest and business like manner, that doubtful claims against the State have been resisted, that appointments to office have been fairly made, and that he has been courteous and kind to all who have had occasion to call on him. We gladly mention all these facts. And now if, in addition to all said, we may also add that he has stopped the practice of speculating with State funds, and has put an end to the system of loaning at interest the moneys of the State, he will have a strong case indeed. We like courtesy, business-like habits, care in scrutinizing bills against the State, and all such things, but we are very anxious that the moneys of the State shall be used and applied exactly in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution and laws. The duty of seeing that this is done belongs to Auditor General Allen; and it is extremely important that it should be vigorously performed.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph meets certain allusions of ours to the influences which probably changed the political complexion of its Select Council, by the courteous reminder that our advice and warnings are wasted on it—a fact we are quite ready to admit. Also, that if the "Rings" that run the Republican party don't suit us, we are at liberty to cast in our fortunes with the "honest" Democracy. This is a tolerably cool assumption of the idea that the State Ring owns the Republican party in this State. We are of the opinion that so far is this from being true, that the Republican party is throwing off the Ring, and the result in the election of the Select Council in Harrisburg is one of the evidences of this fact. The GAZETTE has no difficulty whatever in supporting the party. Its principles have been dear to it, and are as pure and acceptable now as ever. It merely claims that would-be leaders shall keep up to the party standard in all particulars, and this we shall insist upon. When they do not do this, and when their course is such as to endanger the success and future prosperity of the party, we shall say so. And in doing this, we seek the welfare of the organization it is "our pride and pleasure to support."

THE TREASURER'S REPORT.

To-morrow, the monthly statement of the State Treasurer, and that of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, will be made and published. We shall look very closely at these, and suggest in advance that unless they conform fully with the requirements of the Constitution, and of the law, the Auditor General refuse to receive them. He has the power to do this. Should he do so, he will free himself of responsibility; and stand better before the people. Should he fail to do so, and the reports are not what they should be, he cannot expect to escape unharmed. We comprehend the full situation. The law enacted last Winter was juggled and emasculated. The general revenue fund was made a mere trifle, while the Sinking Fund Commissioners were freed from making a detailed report. But the August statement compared with that of July will show exactly how much was turned into the Sinking Fund from the General Revenue fund, on the first of July. It is hard to follow up this involved and peculiar style of financial management, and we cannot avoid the conclusion that all this obscurity was arranged for with a view of preventing the public from knowing all the facts. Be that as it may, we insist on a right showing. And more than this, we claim that the Auditor General is in a position where he has every opportunity of knowing all the facts; and of thwarting any misuse of State funds.

It is perfectly known, to the State Treasurer, the Auditor General, and all interested in the management of our State finances, that one of the most resolute sections of the new Constitution was framed with a view to preventing speculation with State moneys. This was one of the primary and chief reasons for calling that Convention together, and the law enacted, emasculated as it is, had this for its aim and purpose. The Auditor General is called upon to see that the spirit, as well as the letter of the law, is observed. Are the State moneys used for personal gain, by the Treasurer or others? Are they loaned at interest? It is the duty of the Auditor General to know if this is done, and to prevent it. We call upon him to do his duty. Thus far, everything has looked like speculation with these moneys. If this is being done, we call upon him to stop it,—and if he refuses, he fails in performing an obvious duty.

THE FIVE PER CENT. LOAN.

When the bids for the new five per cent. loan, offered by the Government, were opened, and but about $10,000,000 were found to be acceptable to Secretary Bristow, a cry was started that his first distinct financial movement was a failure, and we must look elsewhere for a Secretary of the Treasury who really comprehends the mystery of financial operations. Secretary Bristow had neither popularized the loan, nor conciliated the syndicates. Hence he had failed in both directions, and the attempt to place the loan was a failure. But while these croakings were being sounded, the Secretary who had rigidly demanded that the loan should be placed at par, was in consultation with August Belmont, representing the Rothschilds and J. and W. Seligman, and completed at one sitting an arrangement whereby these firms subscribed directly for $45,000,000 of the loan, and were given the option of the entire balance for six months. The confident belief is entertained that within the limit mentioned the entire amount, $174,000,000, will be taken. It may thus be said to be disposed of. The loan is placed at par, one quarter of one per cent. commission to be allowed, but the parties receiving this are required to pay all other expenses. Payment is to be made in gold or five-twenties, which is practically a premium of nine per cent. currency on the loan. The placing of this loan will effect a saving in interest to the amount of $1,740,000 annually.

The successful negotiation of this loan proves two things: 1. That we have a Secretary of the Treasury who knows how to manage a large affair of this kind. If failure would have proved incompetency, certainly success proves ability. But Secretary Bristow evidently fully considered all the surroundings of this loan, and matured his plans. This done, and he was ready to take his course firmly and clearly. He did so and succeeded in bringing capitalists to see that if they wished the loan, they must come and take it on his terms. In place of sending agents abroad to hunt syndicates, the capitalists sent agents to him, and bought his bonds at par in gold. 2. That the credit of this Government has greatly improved within a few years. When the six per cents. were put on the market, during the war, the Rothschilds, influenced, doubtless, by Belmont, at that time Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, held aloof. That loan could have been had at less than par in currency. Their failure to take it was, therefore, one of their great mistakes, in a financial point of view. Their promptness in taking this proves that they have learned wisdom, as well as that our credit has advanced among European financiers. The currency six per cent. loan was rejected; but the gold five per cent. is promptly taken at par.

We regard this negotiation, accomplished so speedily, and representing the first distinct financial move of the new Secretary, as a good omen. Its entire management proves the Secretary to be a man of sagacity and nerve. He is evidently equal to the situation, and gives in this the promise of a successful career. We incline to the belief that he may prove, as President Grant is reported to have suggested, "too large a man for the croakers to handle."

POLITICAL.

W. R. JOHNS, of the Emlenton Messenger, is an independent candidate for Assembly in Venango county.

THE only Republican journal in New York which has openly opposed the nomination of Governor Dix has hauled down its flag.

IT is announced in Iowa that ex-Gov. Andrew G. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, will make several speeches in the former State in favor of the Anti-Monopoly ticket.

HON. HENRY W. HILLIARD appeals to the Georgians to let the name of Alexander H. Stephens stand upon the roll of the House of Representatives until the day of his death.

POLITICS are at so low an ebb in Louisiana that the New Orleans Picayune gives notice that political advertisements will not decorate its columns "unless paid for in advance."

MR. GEORGE M. STEARNS has given authority for the announcement that he will accept the Democratic nomination for Congress in Mr. Dawes' district. He is a very popular man.

THE Cincinnati Gazette says that the danger just now is that less than half the voters of the State will go to the polls on the 18th of August to vote on the new Constitution for Ohio.

THE New York Sun, under the caption "John A. Dix for President of the United States," says: "No other man living possesses to day in so large degree the confidence of the American people."

AN Indianapolis minister spent an hour the other day in exhorting a lot of Democratic politicians to be "honest and virtuous." Probably this is as good an illustration as we could have of what Paul meant in his remark about the "foolishness of preaching."

IN the Thirteenth Congressional District of Ohio the Democracy are absurdly angry because the present incumbent insisted upon a renomination after having pledged himself to be satisfied with a single term. A split has followed, and the Hon. Milton J. Southard, M. C., will probably be elected to stay at home.

A GRANGER of the old school has been nominated to succeed Judge Niblack in the Indiana Congressional delegation. He is a farmer, wears homespun jeans, and has served nearly a score of years in the Legislature. His name is James D. Williams, and his friends predict that he will walk over the course and win.

DEMOCRATIC organs of the present day are very inharmonious concerns. Some of them have twisted and thumped the party platform in Indiana until they have made it satisfactory on the hard money question. Others openly denounce the resolutions as heretical, and disparage all attempts to make them say what they do not.

THUS the New York Tribune on Repudiation: "That old, worm-eaten, barnacle-laden ship is still afloat. She was sighted on Wednesday in the latitude of Indianapolis, water-logged. Her timbers and canvass are rotten, her last voyage having been made in the fifties. Since then the old hulk has been sagging about without chart or compass, with most of the crew down with the scurvy. To proceed in plain English, the organization in the State of Indiana claiming to be still the old Democratic party appears to be equally destitute of common honesty and common sense."

THE Republicans of Beaver county will hold their primary election on Saturday, August 29th, and the convention will meet at the Court House in Beaver on the ensuing Monday. Appended is a list of announcements of candidates: For Congress, William S. Moore, D. Critchlow; Assembly, G. L. Eberhart, John Caughey, Chas. A. Griffin, Dr. C. I. Wendt, D. C. Benham, Robert L. Sterling; Prosecuting Attorney, Joseph F. Dunlap, Joseph Ledlie, N. C. Martin; Commissioner, Andrew Watterson, W. A. Laird, Finley Anderson, H. J. Marshall; Poor Director, Samuel E. Walton; Trustees of Academy, M. Darrah, H. R. Moore; Auditor, C. C. Riggs, John E. Harton.

IN HIS new paper, the La Parte Chronicle, the Hon. Jasper Packard, who is serving his third term as the Representative of the XIth Congressional District of Indiana, gives the following explanation why so many Congressmen decline a renomination: "When he sees scattered thickly through the press paragraphs of which this may stand for a single specimen: 'Your children may never have wealth, but when they grow up it will be something for them to boast of that their fathers were not members of the XLIId Congress,' the man of honor and honesty, sensitive to imputations on his integrity, will necessarily regard his self-respect and good name too much to stand any longer a target for the shafts of malice and mendacity, and the teaching of a large portion of the newspaper press that our public men are corrupt."

THERE SEEMS to be little doubt that a bargain has been regularly entered into by the politicians of Philadelphia and Allegheny, by which Paxton, of the former, and Graham, of the latter, are to receive nominations respectively for Supreme Judge and Lieutenant Governor, at the hands of the forthcoming Republican State Convention. If the friends of Col Campbell, of Cambria, (who is said to have more instructed delegates than any other of the candidates,) and those of Messrs. Olmstead, Fleniken, Sill and Purviance, were disposed to throw their forces together, and unite upon one of their number, they could break that 'slate' to pieces without much trouble. If, then, a combination is practicable, on the part of the above named candidates, and we see no good reason to the contrary, they owe it as a duty to the party, to effect it without hesitation—not only as a fitting rebuke to impertinent intermeddling in this instance, but to serve as a lesson to would-be political managers, to attend to their own proper and legitimate business, and let all matters of this character alone in the future. We are satisfied the thing could be done. We are equally well satisfied, that for the well-being of the party, it ought to be done—but whether it will or not, we presume will not be known definitely until the 19th of August.—Beaver Times.

PERSONAL.

MR. MOTLEY has been visiting his daughter, Lady Sheridan, in England.

DE VIVO has engaged the violoncellist Braga for his Di Murska concert troupe.

CONGRESSMAN John D. Cessna, is sick at Bedford, with cancer of the nose and mouth.

BRIGNOLI, it is said, will join Mapleson's company through the English provinces in the Fall.

SOME people are troubling themselves about the question whether Lady Amberly was an infidel.

THE Philadelphia Bulletin, which is raising a fund for Hans Christian Anderssen, acknowledges the receipt thus far of over three hundred dollars.

MME. CLARA BRINKERHOFF sung the "Inflammatus," from Rossini's "Stabat Mater," in magnificent style, at Trinity church, Easton, Pa., on Sunday.

BARON SCHWARZ SANBORN, the new Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Austria to the United States, has arrived. The Baron was Director General of the Vienna International Exhibition.

THE Prince of Wales has had another escape from being injured by a headlong horseman. At the Aldershot review a troop-horse, becoming unmanageable, dashed at full speed against the Prince, who was mounted, and flung both horse and rider to the ground. The Prince, however, escaped unhurt, and was in the saddle again in a few minutes.

A BABY is about to make its debut in Rio Janeiro whose appearance may make a difference. The Count d'Eu and the Princess Imperial have arrived from France to fulfil the constitutional clause which prescribes that the heirs of the throne shall be born in Brazil. If the child is a male he will set aside the sons of the younger sister, the deceased Princess Leopoldina.

IN reply to a correspondent for the correct pronunciation of the name of Farragut, the Chicago Inter-Ocean says it is pronounced exactly as it is spelled. Commodore Farragut once rebuked a friend of the writer who, in the sweetest manner possible, addressed him as Farra*gue*. The way the old veteran made every letter speak in his reply caused the startled questioner to nearly fall over the taffrail.

A STATEMENT which was recently made in this country, that Garibaldi was in such utter bodily prostration as to be unable even to bring food to his lips by his own hands, is entirely contradicted in a letter he has addressed from Caprera to his old friend, Count Giorgio Pallavicino. The General says he only wishes he could preserve to his life's end the same good health as he now enjoys; and he declares himself ready to join in a campaign should Italy require his services.

AMONG the noted actors whom our play-goers will see next season may be named the following: J. L. Toole, John McCullough, Miss Katharine Rogers, Dion Boucicault, Carlotte Cushman, Joseph Jefferson, Ristori, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams, John E. Owens, Mrs. Bowers, Emily Soldene, Adelaide Nilsson, Mlle. Aimee, George Vandenhoff, John Gilbert, Lester Wallack, Barry Sullivan, George Fawcett Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Rousby, Miss Clara Morris, Mrs. Lander, Edwin L. Davenport, Edwin Adams, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Chanfrau, Miss Rose Eytinge, Lawrence Barrett, and Olive Logan.

MRS. SUSANNA MOODIE writes to the Toronto Globe from Lakefield, Ontario, to correct some of the statements published regarding her sister, the late Miss Agnes Strickland, the authoress of the histories of the "Queens of England" and the "Queens of Scotland." Miss Strickland, she says, was born in the County of Kent, England, July 19, 1796. Early in life she showed a love for history, and soon made herself well acquainted with the historical works and the English classics in her father's well filled library. She frequently amused and instructed her brothers and sisters by repeating passages from the works she had read, and during her father's illness read to him the political events of the day and the long speeches delivered in Parliament.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

THE directors of the Bank of England have fixed the rate of discount at three per cent.

A DISPATCH from Newton, Kansas, says that Captain Hannahan's company of militia returned to Fort Dodge on Tuesday, and that they killed nine Camanche Indians on the Canadian river, on whose bodies a number of white scalps were found.

THE Gulf cities of Texas are growing with remarkable rapidity. Great carloads of grain and other products are being shipped to these ports from Kansas and upper Texas, and with the contemplated railroad developments in that section of the country the trade will increase tenfold.

THE captain of the brig Eotishen reported at the office of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, in New York, on Wednesday, that he passed Welling's Island July 18, two days after the wreck of the Guatamala. At that time she was on perfect even keel, with foretop sail and house flag flying. None of the crew were seen, but a large number of boats were removing the cargo Williamstown, and no more assistance seemed to be needed.

THE lemon crop is poor this year along the coasts of Spain, Africa and Italy, which usually furnish the supplies. Mentone, on the Mediterranean, below Nice, in the south of France, has a fine crop, however and the fruit from there bears a sea voyage much better than any other kind. There is now an unusual number of American vessels in the harbor of Mentone. The average cargo for a vessel is 5,000 boxes, each, containing 500 lemons. This would make the number of lemons carried by a vessel about 2,500,000.

THE remarkably fraternal feeling developed at the camp meeting at Round Lake appears to have extended to the encampment at Sea Cliff. The Methodist brethren from the South express their grateful surprise at the warmth of their greeting and earnestness of the assembly in its work. There are all the fervor and energy of the traditional camp meeting, with little of the objectionable features that have so often marred such gatherings. There seems to be good reason for the hope that the close affiliations of this meeting will pave the way for the organic union of the North and South branches of the Methodist Church.

A FEW days ago a fashionable lady stopping at Sandwich, near Detroit, took a bath in some of the spring water of that place. The water is powerfully impregnated with sulphur. On emerging from the bath she stepped to a mirror, as ladies occasionally do, when, to her horror, she saw that her face, neck and arms had turned black. She believed she was dying—that mortification had set in. Her fears were allayed when she learned that the startling color of the flesh was a chemical result, the sulphur in the water acting upon the lead contained in some article for the toilet she had been using to artificially improve the fairness of her complexion.

A FREEHOLD in London is much rarer than that pestiferous reptile, a Radical. The property of Bishops and Peers is leased for ninety-nine years, the most preposterous conditions being frequently inserted in these leases—no shops to be permitted here, no dissenting churches there; in fact, the land is locked up from enterprise and the houses are built of flimsiest nature, with the walls so thin that a young lady practising "Home Sweet Home," with variations in one house is bewildered by the young lady singing "Ever of Thee" in the next. Without finish or convenience, houses let in London are in singular contrast to that thoroughness and stability characteristic of the nation.

How intensely absurd is the great waste of lung power, of horse-flesh, of wagon-work and of human patience in the practice of apple, potato, vegetable and fruit street venders in passing in succession over and over the same routes throughout the city. Under the same head of wastefulness is the distribution of milk and the collection of old rags, old iron, stoves and other articles of noisy commerce. This annoying, horrible waste might be stopped. As a step preliminary to the adoption of plans for economy in such important matters, we suggest that the various merchants under the heads named hold conventions wherein they may discuss and determine plans by which they may save money and abate the infamous nuisance they create.—Cin. Commercial.

THERE is a story of an African monarch who drank the alkali of a dozen soda powders and then swallowed the contents of the accompanying acid papers. Being too full for utterance, we are left without a record of his feelings. If any one desires to know for himself how it feels, he can try the experiment; and then if its workings are pleasing and the sensation pleasurable, he can improve on it by taking a few of the pills described by the Revue de Therapie. According to that journal there is a medicine in the form of a little pill, which is sometimes used by English physicians. This innocent pellet has the quality of exploding under certain conditions, an exposure to a moderately high temperature being one of them. A box of them have been known to explode, tearing the dressing-case in which they were kept. The effect of a couple blowing up in the patient's stomach furnishes food for the imagination and business for the coroner.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Stanley's Expedition.

We acknowledge the receipt of a large number of communications from all parts of the country and from people of various accomplishments and adventurous character. These correspondents have been inspired by the success and the fame of Mr. Stanley in his former expedition in search of Livingstone, and are anxious to accompany him in the expedition which he now commands in behalf of the London Telegraph and the Herald in search of the haunts of the slave trade and the sources of the Nile. Some of these wish to attend to the astronomy of the expedition; others are physicians, who would like to look after its health. Two or three are enthusiastic missionaries, who would be happy to convert the heathen Africans. Some are journalists eager to write the history of the enterprise, but the majority are young men possessed with the spirit of adventure. One wretched person whose domestic life is unhappy would like to bury his sorrows in Ujiji. We cannot make personal responses to these applications, and we say now in a general way, and as an answer to all such letters, that Stanley's expedition is complete, that there are no vacancies, and that it is impossible to consider any of the applications with which we have been honored.—N. Y. Herald.

A Newly Formed Island.

Massachusetts papers report that a portion of Winchendon, Massachusetts, covered with grass, cranberry vines, whortleberry bushes and over four hundred trees, recently floated off into Monomonock lake, between Rindge, New Hampshire, and Winchendon, Massachusetts. The newly formed island was first seen near the town of Rindge on May 30th. The following day it again floated off about two miles down the lake, but on June 3d returned to its first place of anchorage. The island covers six acres, and it is a lake covering an area of 2500 acres. It was probably started from its natural site by the lake being unusually high and a strong southerly wind prevailing. But it has also been suggested that it left Massachusetts for a summer vacation in New Hampshire, to escape the effects of protracted legislation, and that after all it may only have originated a Yankee trick for attracting summer tourists to the lake.

FORTUNES MADE AND LOST.

Fight Over the Palatial Residence of an Ex-Wall Street Millionaire.

The Dimmock mansion on Broad street, Elizabeth, N. J., is generally recognized as one of the most magnificent as well as costly private residences in the States. It was begun in 1871, or thereabouts, and cost Anthony W. Dimmock, the once well-known Wall street millionaire, between $400,000 and $500,000. His failure in 1872 left the house still unfinished and encumbered with mortgages. Recently the matter has been thrown into the hands of a Master in Chancery, who is taking testimony as to the rights and preferences of mortgages and mechanics. Among those having large claims against this property is Mr. Purdy, a moulder of New York City. He did the interior wood-work, and has put in his bill at $50,000, and has taken a lien on the premises. Another New Yorker, a Mr. Jacobus, holds a mortgage of $80,000 on the house, and the question of the priority of claim between him and Mr. Purdy promises to be a vexed one. Besides these two claimants is the Mutual Benefit Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., which holds a mortgage of $10,000. The present owner of the equity is Dr. Rowan, of Philadelphia, who took the house at a nominal valuation of $250,000, exchanging for it various properties at nominal values. The mansion in question is of brown stone, is three stories in height and is octagonal in shape. At the time it was commenced A. W. Dimmock, although but thirty-five or thirty-six years of age, was one of the lions of Wall street. At the age of nineteen he commenced business in the city in the banking house of H. G. Maynard, and worked the first year for $250. In 1864-5 his business tact led him into the speculation of gold, and so successful were his ventures that he withdrew from the house of Maynard and established the firm of "A. W. Dimmock & Co." He is said to have cleared $500,000 in one day during the rise of gold after the battle of Fredericksburg. In an evil hour he invested the greatest portion of a large fortune in the Atlantic Mail Steamship Line, but through the withdrawal of Daniel Drew and others, who were in the "pool," the stock depreciated so rapidly that his losses in one day reached $1,500,000. By disposing of his vast estate at Tarrytown he settled with his creditors and began anew, but getting a controlling interest in the same line of steamships, followed by a long train of mishaps, irretrievably ruined him, and in 1872 he retired from Wall street. Previous to his last failure he purchased 300 acres of land in Elizabeth and erected thereon a large number of elegant villas, and finished by putting up the palatial residence mentioned, which, like the others, are in litigation among his numerous creditors.—New York Times.

Advice to the South.

EX-PRESIDENT COLFAX tells the people of the South the truth when he writes them: With small farms, carefully tilled, and with industrious laborers who own their crops as well as themselves, you will very largely increase your products, and your wealth correspondingly. And welcoming and encouraging immigration from abroad, as well as from colder and less fertile portions of the Republic, you may hope to count your population by the million hereafter, instead of by hundreds of thousands. Theory will not accomplish this. Denunciations of the national change in the labor system, which, in the end, will prove a blessing in disguise to your State, will not accomplish this. White Leagues will only retard and prevent it. Hard work, careful work, thorough work, faithful work, by willing hands, is the guaranty of a prosperous present, and a far more prosperous future.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, July 31, 1874.

In the local money market there was scarcely a feature worthy of special note to-day. There is very little demand for money from any department of trade, and approved borrowers find no difficulty in getting all the money they want at from 7 to 9 per cent., either in the open market or at the bank. The firm of Geo. B. Hill & Co., bankers, that suspended some two weeks ago, yesterday paid the claim of the city of Pittsburgh in full. This claim was the cause of their having to close. We understand they hope to be able to satisfy all their creditors without even asking for an extension. Real estate is at a complete stand still so far as buying and selling as a speculative transaction. We doubt very much if it will be improved to any extent before next spring.

The Secretary of the Treasury has concluded the negotiations for the funding of the remainder of the five per cent. funded loan. The contracting parties are the United States on the one hand and Messrs. Augustus Belmont & Co. on behalf of Messrs. N. M. Rothschild & Son, of London, and their associate houses in the Continental cities; J. M. Seligman & Co. on behalf of themselves and their associates in Paris and Vienna, and the First National Bank, of New York City. These parties absolutely subscribed to $45,000,000, with an option to take the remainder of the loan at any time within six months. The loan is to be taken at par, payable in coin, matured coupons, or five-twenty bonds. The parties are to receive one-fourth of one per cent. commission, and are to defray all expenses of the negotiation and exchange, including the expense of delivering the bonds. The Secretary of the Treasury considers that, from the character of the firms with whom this arrangement has been made, there can be no doubt that the entire loan is practically negotiated. The Treasury officers feel that a great work has been accomplished. This is the sixth week of the administration of General Bristow, and he has succeeded in accomplishing that which many predicted he would fail to do—provide for the funding of $179,000,000 of the six per cent. five-twenty bonds, in bonds of the new five per cent. loan. By this operation the United States will save one per cent. gold interest on $179,000,000, without sending one dollar of gold out of the country, and at the cost to the Government of only one-quarter of one per cent.

THE NEW CURRENCY LAW.

Thus far, the abolition of the reserve formerly required to be held by the national banks against their circulation has had scarcely any effect on the amount of greenbacks actually held by the banks, as will be seen by the aggregate amount of greenbacks held by the banks of New York, Boston and Philadelphia, at the respective dates of their last two statements, viz: June 20 and July 18, at which latter date the law had been in operation four weeks:

	July 18.	June 20.
Banks of New York....	$61,850,000	$61,838,000
Banks of Boston.........	9,670,000	10,015,000
Banks of Philadelphia..	15,500,000	16,526,000
Total...............	$87,020,000	$87,379,000
Decrease.........	359,000	....

The above amounts for July 18 of course include the portions of the 5 per cent. redemption fund in the United States Treasury belonging to the banks of the cities mentioned.

On the 23d inst. the amount of legal tenders deposited in the Treasury as a redemption fund against circulation was $16,153,269, and, as the total amount required is $17,700,000, to cover the total of $354,000,000 of circulation, it will be seen that nearly the whole redemption fund has been deposited.

One thousand shares of Lake Shore and Western Union were sold out under the rule for account of George B. Watts. The Treasurer of the State of Georgia has notified the Fourth National Bank, the agent for paying coupons, not to pay 7 per cent. gold bonds issued under the act of Sept. 15, 1870, Nos. 796, 945, 946 and 1619, each for $1,000. PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, July 30, 1874.

The general markets present no new or important features deserving of special notice. While the demand for nearly all the leading staples is restricted almost wholly to supplying immediate wants, there is a very fair volume of business in the aggregate; as regards values there have been no important changes since the date of our last report.

APPLES—Continue very dull, with a supply considerably in excess of present requirements and prices are weak and barely maintained, ranging from $1,50@2 ₿ brl.

BERRIES—Blackberries were in good supply, but mostly in bad condition; sales were made at 50@75c ₿ bucket and $4@5 ₿ stand of two bushels.

BUTTER—Commission men generally report the market slow, with rather more coming in than is being sold, and prices are weaker, although without quotable change; we quote at 20@23 for prime to choice, with an occasional odd package at 24@25. Low grade butter is very dull.

BEANS—Continue very dull, but prices are nominally unchanged at $2@2 50 ₿ bushel, as to quality.

CHEESE—Is firmer; there has been an advance all around recently, and it is almost certain that there will be an advance here within the next few days. We continue to quote prime Ohio Factory at 12½@13.

EGGS—The market continues dull, with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, and prices are weak and lower; we reduce our quotations to 16@17.

FLOUR—The market continues slow; if anything, weaker, although prices are without quotable change. Spring wheat flours, $6.75@$7 for Wisconsin's and $7 25@7,50 for Minnesota's; red winter wheat $6 50@7. Rye Flour is in light supply, but there is not much call for it; $5 75@6.

GROCERIES—A Rio telegram of the 25th, reports a decline in Coffee there, during the week preceding, of equal to 1½c. gold, with a large increase in the receipts, the average daily arrivals, which not long since were down to about 2,000 bags, had increased to 5,800 bags; this news, as might be expected, has depressed the eastern markets very considerably, and the indications generally point to a sharp decline. Sugars, both raw and refined, continue quite active and the recent advance is fully sustained, with every indication of still higher rates. Molasses and Syrups steady but unchanged.

SUGARS.—Patent Cut Loaf, 13. Granulated, 11¾c. Crushed, 11⅞; Powdered, 11⅞; Standard A, 11; B, 10⅞; Ex. C, 10⅝; Franklin Extra C, 9⅞; American Extra C, 9⅝; Yellow Sugars, 7⅞ to 9 cents.

COFFEE.—Choice Rio, 26; prime, 25; good, 24. Roasted, 29c for 1 pound packages; loose, 28¼c; Old Government Java, 30c; Roasted, 40c.

MOLASSES—Strictly prime New Orleans, 90c; prime, 85c; good, 80c; common, 75c; Porto Rico, 70@75c.

SYRUPS—Fancy White Drips, $1,00@1.20; White Drips, 75c; Extra Sugar Drips, 65 to 70c; Amber, 60@65; Molasses Syrups, 35 to 50 as to quality.

RICE—Best Carolina, 9¾; good, 9¼; Rangoon, 7¾@8c; Patna, 8¼c.

GRAIN—There is a rather firmer feeling in regard to Wheat, but the demand continues rather limited and prices have undergone no quotable change; $1,20@1.25 for new red and $1,25@1.30 for old, according to quality. The Oat market is fairly active and in light supply, but prices remain as last quoted; 65@68 for good mixed to prime white. The Chicago market is tending upward again, and this, of course, will not be without its influence. The feeling generally prevails that prices will rule higher during the coming cereal year than they did during the one which has just closed. Shelled Corn continues scarce and there is some inquiry for it; quotable at 80 on track and 82 free in elevator. Ear Corn is also in light supply and steady at 80@82. Rye is quiet and nominally unchanged; $1,00@1,05.

HAY—The market for baled continues dull and, notwithstanding the arrivals are by no means large, there is considerably more offering than is wanted and prices are weak and nominally unchanged; $20@25 ₿ ton, according to quality and condition.

HOMINY—$4 50@5 ₿ brl.

PROVISIONS—Hams—Extra Sugar Cured canvassed, 16¼; Shoulders—Extra Sugar Cured, canvassed, 10¼; Breakfast Bacon—Sugar Cured canvassed, 13¾; Dried Beef—Ex. Sugar Cured, canvassed, 18. Beef Tongues, Extra Sugar Cured, ₿ doz, $7.50. Bacon—Shoulders, 9¾ ₿ lb; Rib Sides, 10¾; Short Rib Sides, 12; Clear Rib Sides, 12¾. Mess Pork, ₿ brl, $24; Lard—Prime Leaf, in tierces, 13 ₿ lb; Refined summer use in tierces, 14; half brls, 14¼; buckets 15; 3 lb caddies, 15¼; 5 lb do, 15¼; 3 lb pails, 16¼; 5 do pails 16; 8 do pails 15¾.

POTATOES &c—The arrivals of Potatoes have fallen off somewhat, but the supply is fully equal to the demand and prices remain unchanged; $3.50@4 ₿ brl. Tomatoes very dull and lower; $1@1.50 ₿ bushel. Cabbages, $2@3 ₿ brl. Cucumbers $1@1.50 ₿ box and very dull. Watermelons $15@20 ₿ 100.

POULTRY—Spring Chickens, 50@60c ₿ pair; old do, 70@75.

PEACHES—The market was glutted to-day, hence prices ruled considerably lower; $1.50@2 ₿ box.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed quotable at $3,50@3,75. Flax Seed $2.20.

RAGS—2½@3 cts ₿ lb.

TALLOW—6¾@7c ₿ lb.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET

CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, EAST LIBERTY, THURSDAY, July 30, 1874.

ARRIVALS

The arrivals during the twenty four hours ending at noon to-day were as follows: Cattle, 31 cars; Hogs, 17 cars; Sheep, 20 cars; making thus far for this week, including Sunday up to this writing, 250 cars of cattle, 94 cars of Hogs, and 95 cars of Sheep.

CATTLE.

The market continues active, especially for prime fat cattle, the supply of which was not near equal to the demand, and prices are strong and, as compared with this day week, ¼ to ½ higher. Prime 1,400@1,500 steers fairly quotable at 6¾@7¼; good 1,200@1,300, 6¼@6¾; fair 1,100@1,100, 5½@6. Stockers, which constituted the bulk of the offerings this week, sold all the way from 3 to 5, according to quality and condition. There were scarcely any remaining unsold at noon to-day, except some through consignments belonging to Alexander, McPherson, and Morris. Sales during the past 24 hours foot up 934, making 3,754 for the week. Of those sold 65 cars were purchased for shipment to Philadelphia as follows: R Maynes, 5 cars; S. Lowenstein, 6; L Shamberg, 14; James Ault, 3; M Ullman, 8; Crouse & Martin, 9; John McArdle, 3; various, 17. Watson and Briggs bought some 7 or 8 cars, and James Brinton 4 or 5 cars for New York, and, in addition, there 7½ cars taken by country dealers and butchers. The market this week, taken all in all, was the best we have had for some time.

SHEEP.

The market for this class of stock continues firm at the advance noted in our last report, and the supply was scarcely equal to the demand. Not only has there been a good demand for fat sheep, but stockers are also selling fairly as well, and all kinds are bringing better prices than they did at this time last week. Extra fine wool 100 lbs, 5¾; 90@95 lbs, 5¼@5½; 80@85 lbs, 4¾@5; 70@75 lbs, 3¾@4. Jersey ewes in demand and fairly quotable at $2.50@3.50 ₿ head, according to quality.

HOGS.

The hog market does not give the slightest evidence of a break, we refer now to good corn fed, the supply, it is evident is very much reduced in first hands, otherwise the prices now current would bring them in in much larger numbers. Grass hogs quotable at 6.50@6.75; corn fed hogs at 7.25@7.85, the outside figure for prime Philadelphias.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, July 30, 1874.

Trade was apparently very quiet to-day, and both crude and refined were reported weaker. The former was quoted at 95 asked and 93@93½ bid for immediate shipment—we did hear it rumored, late in the day, that sales had been made at 90, but, if it was true, we do not believe that any considerable amount could have been purchased at the price in question. Refined also weak and lower, sales of July reported at 11⅝, delivered in Philadelphia, and September at 12 1-16, August may be quoted nominally at 12. We heard October quoted at 9⅝ on cars here—equal to 12⅝ delivered in Philadelphia. From all that we can learn, there is very little oil offering from first hands at current rates, and it is not to be wondered at, if, as we are assured, they scarcely cover actual cost of manufacture.

The Barrel market continues moderately active but unchanged; countries, $1,45@1.50; city make at $1,60.

New York Wool Market.

NEW YORK, July 29.—There has been a very fair business transacted during the past three days, and quotations, with the exception of spring California, are held with a great degree of firmness; there has been a falling off in the business in the interior, where about one quarter to three eighths of the clip remains undisposed of; dealers now see that the prices paid in the country a few weeks since cannot be covered here, at least for the present; but speculators, who have bought largely, are holding their stocks back rather than let them come forward at present figures. Texas Georgia and Lake Wools sell readily at firm prices; foreign has been quiet, but with a light stock prices are firm. The sales embrace thirty five thousand lbs X and above Ohio fleeces at 51@54c; fifty five thousand do Wisconsin at 50@51c; five thousand do choice tub washed at 57c; twenty thousand do medium Indiana combing at 45c, thirty thousand do do clothing at 42c; fifteen thousand do Texas at 28@34½c. 25 bags low super pulled at 42c; ten thousand lbs spring California, choice, at 37; 50 bales Australian at 52½c; 25 do Cape at 36½; and seventy thousand lbs medium and coarse unwashed fleece, twelve thousand do lambs' pulled, and 101 bags eastern Texas—all on private terms.—World.

The California Barley Supply.

The San Francisco "Chronicle" says: The stock of Barley in California is now lower than it was a year ago. Yet the yield of the year 1873-3 was by far the largest ever known, and the present years crop outweighs it by 25 ₿ cent. The total production for 1873-4 is not less than 1,100,000 centals, of which a very large proportion will be converted into malt and sent Eastward by rail and about 600,000 centals of the whole crop will go by sea to various ports where it is in request. Of the malt some goes to British Columbia, some to Australia, and a very large quantity—about 2,000,000 pounds—is sent East to beer drinking cities, which are not blest with the raw material. The price may be lowered a little by the extra production, but growers should remember that the world has been sufficiently supplied with cereals, and that consequently, as a general rule, a rise follows quickly upon a depression. Under any circumstances a large shipment of Barley or malt should take place during the present year, and a proportionate return ensue to the grower.

GEORGE H. ROHE,
Observer, Signal Service, U. S. A.

The river, contrary to general expectation, on Wednesday, rose twelve inches on Wednesday night and yesterday, and was still swelling slowly last evening, with scant 7 feet 6 inches in the channel. Weather clear and pleasant, and the wharf presents a more cheerful appearance than it has done for some time past.

The Mary Davege arrived with a barge of ore which she was obliged to drop at Beaver. The Abe McDonald, Fox, James Gilmore and J. A. Stone were due last night. The Fox and Gilmore were lashed together when they passed Wheeling.

The Fearless barges were busy all day yesterday receiving freight, and they will take their departure for St. Louis to-day.

Following towboats departed for Cincinnati with tows of coal: Coal Valley, Wm. Stone, Stella, Coal City, Joe Walton, Nellie Walton, Fair Play, Hornet, Lion and John Gilmore. The Simpson Horner was to have taken her departure last night.

Capt. Sam Shuman will leave for Cincinnati to-day or to-morrow to load the Exchange for this port.

—Yesterday's Cincinnati "Gazette" says:—Many days have elapsed since we have observed as much activity on the wharf as was apparent yesterday. Freight for Pittsburgh was plentiful.——The Mollie Ebert left last evening with the best Pittsburgh trip that we have seen for many days, including forty tons of gas pipe for Wheeling. She has between 250 and 300 tons engaged at points above. Pilots, Alf. Williamson and Thos. Rabo.——The R. W. Dugan, Captain Lon Bryson, is advertised to leave for Pittsburgh to-morrow.——Gallipolis collected $22.50 wharfage last week.——The W. H. Harrison left Ironton Wednesday night with two barges of iron for Pittsburgh, and one for Wheeling. The Condor passed down at 3:30 P. M. with coal.

—Mr. Holly Hyde, river editor "Republican," arrived from Cairo yesterday morning twenty four hours ahead of time. When Bacon rock was charged with rock-rend powder, he sat down on it, and held a piece in his hand. He arrived here with a sample of it a few second after it was touched off. Some of his hair was blown off by the rapid transit through the air, otherwise he is in fine condition. He was singing "Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me," so busily that he could not give us any of the particulars, but will, no doubt, give his readers a vivid description of his trip and its incidents.

—A St. Louis dispatch under date of Tuesday says: Business is dull and nearly all the boats from below are lying up as fast as they come in. The Great Republic and John B. Maude both go to the bank until rates advance. The Colossal broke her shaft at Hannibal, but made temporary repairs, and will come here for a new one. It is reported to-day on 'Change that the Richmond has been purchased by Capt. Thorwegan and would be repaired, but the trade fell through this afternoon, and the boat's owners will commence dismantling her to-morrow.

—Some miscreant cut two strands of the spar guy on the John B. Maud on Tuesday, at St. Louis, which, when it gave way, caused the heavy derricks by which the stages are swung to fall, and played general smash with her forward rigging. The forecastle was full of men at the time, and, strange to say, no one was hurt. Captain Noel made a narrow escape as he was standing close to the large derrick, which was broken in two just at the boiler deck by the heavy weight that was thrown upon it. This was all the damage that was sustained.

—Yesterday's "Cincinnati Commercial" says: The Mollie Ebert departed for Pittsburgh with a fair start and liberal engagements above. Charles Regmer contemplates retiring from the office of the Mollie Ebert to engage in business on shore.——Captain Lon Bryson will start the R. W. Dugan to Pittsburgh to-morrow, in place of the Andes. The Dugan is a light boat, while Captain Lon is favorably known all along the Upper Ohio.

—The Gladona is a total wreck. She struck a forked snag square in the bow, and sunk in 2 minutes from the time of striking. Her stern is high and dry but her bow is under water to the boiler deck, and her hull appears to be broken in two just aft of the boilers. The snag she struck was new to the place, having floated down from just opposite Campe.

—From all accounts the "Snarreck iron propeller" is bound to be built. The boat will be turned out by the British builders in about 90 days, and shipped in plates, beams, &c, with the boilers and machinery, and a staff of mechanics sent over to put her up, and deliver her in the Mississippi River, with a full guarantee of every function of a complete steamer.

—The Government engineers are examining the Neuces and Brazos Rivers in Texas to ascertain whether or not these rivers can be made to assist the commercial interests of that section of the river.

—A large portion of the country lying between Bismarck and the Yellowstone is one vast coal bed, and the coal therefrom has thus far proved of excellent quality—nearly or quite equal to the best anthracite.

—The rumor that Captain Thorwegan has purchased the Richmond for ten thousand five hundred dollars is untrue. Messrs. Campbell and Mannion still own her.

—Capt. Gus Curtis, of the Argo, has removed a snag from Twelvepole that has been a source of much trouble to pilots; also one near the wharfboat near Cattlesburg.

—The little Muskingum river steamer Fox, was sold at Zanesville by the U. S. Marshal, on the 24th inst., for $100.

—Tennessee river has experienced a substantial rise, and boats now go up to Cooper's Landing, in Emery river, with heavy loads.

HOME NEWS.

An Artery Severed.

A young man named Kurtz was cutting some wood with a carving knife on yesterday, when the knife slipped and inflicted a very deep gash in the hand. The artery was severed and Dr. Ure who was called in had considerable trouble in stopping the flow of blood. Kurtz resides on Jefferson street, Second ward, Allegheny.

Councils Committee Meetings.

The Survey Committee will meet on Saturday afternoon at 2½ o'clock.

The Police Committee will hold their regular monthly meeting Saturday evening at the usual hour.

The Road Committee meets Monday afternoon at half past two o'clock.

Discharged.

Yesterday afternoon a hearing was had before the Acting Mayor in the case of Frank Rafter, John Schnelle, M. McKeever and Samuel Gold, charged with rape, on oath of Catharine Kuckert. The result was that Rafter alone was held and all the others were discharged, there not appearing to be a particle of evidence against them.

Severe Fall—A Lady Injured.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Wm. Blackham, residing on East Diamond street, Allegheny, met with a serious accident. She was coming down stairs when she missed her footing and fell to the bottom of the flight. Three of her ribs were broken and she suffered several severe bruises also. Dr. Ure was called in and rendered the necessary attention. Her injuries, though severe, will not be attended with fatal consequences.

Attempted Robbery.

Only a few nights ago an attempt was made by burglars to rob the residence of Mr. C. Wolters, on Sixth street, and last night another attempt was made. Mrs. Wolters happened to walk out of one of the rooms in the hallway when she met a strange man slipping along towards the stairway. She at once pointed a large key that she had in her hand at him and called to him to clear out or she would shoot him. The stranger suddenly vanished.

Iron City College.

The advantages offered by this institution, for acquiring a practical business education, are so well-known, and so highly appreciated among the business men of Pittsburgh, many of whom are graduates of the college, as to render unnecessary any detailed statement of its merits. We will only say that it still maintains its former reputation for thoroughness and efficiency, and to young men desirous of preparing themselves for business, there is no school in this country that affords advantages superior to the Iron City College.

Rather Too Noisy

This morning shortly before two o'clock, as officer Kennedy was passing along his beat on Fifth avenue, beyond the Court House, his attention was attracted by melodious warbling coming from No. 76. The melody was rather too high for the peace of the neighborhood, and the officer accordingly used his persuasive influence to have it stopped. His efforts only awakened the wrath of Annie Nish and Maggie De Mott, from whom the sounds emanated and they became so obstreperous that they had to be taken to the lock-up.

Arrested at the Depot.

At an early hour yesterday morning, just after the arrival of the trains from the east, due here shortly after midnight, two citizens of Newark, New Jersey, took into custody a third party named William Doyle, against whom they alleged a serious charge was pending in the city named. While making the arrest, a revolver was drawn, and the entire party became so disorderly that all them were taken into custody and taken to the lock-up. All them were fined by the acting Mayor, and on paying the amount charged them, they started back to Newark, where the case will be duly investigated.

The Fine Arts and Shakespeare.

The second installment, parts six to ten, of the Boydell Shakespeare Gallery are before us, and judging from the ten we have, the work is worthy of being warmly recommended. Over a dozen of the plays are represented in the ten, among the pictures, some by Sir Joshua Reynolds, Benj West, Fuseli, Northcote, Westall, Smirke and others. A scene from Henry VIII, by Rev. Wm. Peters, is a perfect masterpiece. Genuine portraits of Queen Catharine and Cardinal Wolsey are given. The scene is London, Queen's apartments. She is surrounded by her maids of honor, and is replying to the Cardinal's wish for her "to retire into her private chamber for an interview," by rising, and with true womanly dignity, saying, "Speak it here, &c.,"—"Puck representing "I'll put a girdle round about the earth in forty minutes," is unique. All the plates are worthy of special notice, but it is impossible to give space just now. The work should be largely patronized in Pittsburgh, and we feel assured the purchase of it will cause a pleasure which will ten fold pay for the outlay.

The work is of permanent value, as we remarked in our notice of the first installment, and we will only add that Mr. Maclean is on the war path with it, and hope that he may take many captives. Gebbie & Barrie of Philadelphia are the publishers.

BOY SHOT.

The Old Story—Playing with a Pistol.

The victim this time was George Hall, residing on Sixth avenue just below the GAZETTE office. He is about ten years of age, and had borrowed a small one barrelled pistol from a companion. Last evening about eight o'clock, while in front of his home, with two companions he exhibited the pistol and commenced to lift up the hammer; suddenly the weapon was discharged. The ball went through his left hand and into his thigh, where after considerable probing it was afterwards found by the doctor. His injuries are very severe and painful, but no fatal results are apprehended.

THE GREYS.

Camp Life in Rainy Weather—How the Boys Console Themselves—Gossip From the Tents

The Bedford Gazette notes the following items of gossip from the camp, under date of Wednesday:

The Greys felt blue all day yesterday. The weather was very unpropitious, the rain falling in frequent showers, and the only wonder is that the boys are able to make any show of pleasant feeling at all.

Those who can dance have found some relief from the monotony of a rainy day in camp, by attending the hops at the Springs Hotel. The ladies seem to have taken an especial fancy to the soldiers, and express a decided preference for a dance with a uniform. As a natural result the boys are already losing buttons, and the camp tailors are anxiously looked for in the morning. It is calculated that about fourteen hundred pounds of soldiers buttons will be carried away from the Springs by the ladies, as mementoes of flirtations. When last seen the 'Squire of the first ward, for lack of pins, was robbing a thorn bush to get the necessary utensils for keeping his coat together, he being probably the greatest flirt in the regiment.

The scene at the Springs ball-room last night was very fine. The elegant uniforms mingling among the magnificent toilets of the beautiful ladies who graced the room by their presence produced a very pleasing effect.

One member of Co. D. sleeps standing. He never camped out before, and when told he had to sleep on a straw bed took one straw and lay down on it. Then he said, "If one straw is so hard, what would a whole bed full be like," He didn't rest well last night. Two nice young men who brought feather beds along, have been voted snobs, and the feathers have gone down Shover's run.

Many of the tents were flooded with water during yesterday, the ditches being useless during the heavy showers. But by nine o'clock last night the camp presented quite a comfortable and cheerful aspect, the rain having ceased and a change of wind having produced a strong hope that this morning will bring better weather. Regardless of a pelting shower, dress parade came off promptly at 5 P. M. yesterday. The regiment made a remarkably fine appearance, and its evolutions were witnessed by a large number of guests at the Springs, who were delighted with the display.

The members of the regiment console themselves with the reflection that the weather is equally bad throughout the country. Many of the old soldiers think their present camp life comfortable compared with actual services in the army of the Potomac and elsewhere during the war.

Athletic exercises are still the rage. Foot-ball and other games are quite fashionable, and furnish amusement for the boys who are so unfortunately weather-bound in camp.

European Steamship Arrivals Yesterday.

A dispatch received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship, Exchange and Telegraph Office at No. 163 Smithfield street, announces the arrival of the steamer Lord Clive, at New York; steamer Main, at Southampton; steamer Utopia, at Moville.

THE GREAT FLOOD.

The Excitement Calming Down.

THE PRACTICAL WORK GOING ON.

The Record of Yesterday's Labors.

NO ADDITIONAL BODIES FOUND.

How the Work of Relief is Managed.

The excitement occasioned by the flood of Sunday night, is measurably calming down, and the people are now engaged in the double work of repairing, as far as is possible, the great damage done, and of extending relief to the sufferers. The tour over the flooded districts yesterday, gave evidence of the prevalence of a more cheerful feeling, and of returning hopefulness for the future, which will be seen by the record made below of observations on the ground.

Butcher's Run District.

The work of clearing away the ruins in the Butcher's Run district went forward quite briskly yesterday, and a few days more of such activity will put the place into endurable condition. The work was rendered somewhat pleasanter by the efforts of Health Officer Hoch and his gang, who sprinkled disinfectants very plentifully and by this means very considerably modified the offensiveness of the odors, which emanated from the ruins.

All the streets are now cleared—the saloon of Casper Rahn, which blocked up Chestnut street having been moved back to its place. There is yet a plentiful supply of mud on all the thoroughfares, but this is being removed as fast as possible. Street Commissioner Tyson, however, says he could employ more carts now, and is desirous of having his force increased.

Yesterday the military lines were drawn in, and there was less restriction upon passing to and from the district. The crowds were very considerably diminished also, so that there was no interference with the workmen.

No Bodies Found.

No bodies were found among the debris yesterday, save those of animals, which were carted away as soon as found. It is now thought that about all that ever will be found have been discovered, although there is not a question but that more than have been revealed were swept away. Some of them must have reached the river and will probably never be found.

Distributing Relief.

The Relief Committee established their headquarters at Walther's saloon, in the centre of the flooded district, corner of Chestnut and O'Hara streets. They were busily engaged for the greater part of the day, and distributed to the following persons:

A Christ, O'Hara street	$ 15
M. Fogle, Madison avenue	15
Mrs. Steiner, Center street	10
D. Hein, Spring Garden avenue	15
G. Wochele, East street	20
H. Turner, Spring Garden avenue	25
R. Winehouse, East street	15
E. Beck, East street	15
C. Wolf, Spring Garden avenue	15
W. Mudler, Spring Garden avenue	10
Margaret Rice, Spring Garden avenue	10
John Myer, Spring Garden avenue	15
J. Winkler, East street	15
G. Bosich, Spring Garden avenue	15
Mrs Altmos, East street	10
N. Harder, Center street	10
Margaret Sweitzer, Spring Garden avenue	10
Wm Bowers, East street	10
Joseph Hoch, Spring Garden avenue	10
Mrs. Geitz, (residence unknown)	10
Jos. Crimlie, Spring Garden avenue	10
Mr Hull, Spring Garden avenue	10
J. Zimmerly, Spring Garden avenue	10
Mrs. Koole, Spring Garden avenue	10
Mrs. Hess, Chestnut street	10

The task of the committee was one of peculiar difficulty. They had to judge between the worthy and unworthy applicants, and every hour the number seemed to increase. The plan pursued, when the verdict is favorable, is to give an order on Mr. Myler, who proceeds to issue a check on Mr. Dean, Treasurer of the Real Estate Bank, Federal street, Allegheny.

During the afternoon the committee discovered that they had undertaken too heavy a contract and so ceased operations temporarily. They will reorganize and district the work to-day so that the labor may be more equally divided.

The Clothing Department.

Mr. Harry C. Campbell has been placed in charge of the Clothing Bureau, and his office is in the Committee Room, City Hall. The demand for clothing is very urgent—principally for underclothing and boots and shoes. The clothing is only distributed upon an order from the Relief Committee or the Ladies' Relief Association, or when the applicant is vouched for as having suffered by the flood.

Yesterday the following contributions were received: Miss Whitehead, 1 package of clothing; Miss Latimer, 1 package of clothing; H. Pratt, 1 box of boys' hats; Miss McPike, 1 package of clothing; Mrs. G. P. Sullivan, 1 package of clothing; Christian Weinman, 1 package of new shoes; Mrs. R. M. Rhodes, 2 packages of new underclothing; Mrs. John H. Myler, 4 packages of underclothing; James P. Benney, 1 package of shoes; Mrs. C. W. Cooper, 1 package of clothing; unknown, 2 packages of clothing; Master E. S. Johnson, 9 dozen of hats; F. H. Eaton, 14 suits of ladies' clothing and 6 suits of misses and children's clothing.

Mr. Campbell hands the following for publication:

Persons having, boots, shoes, or supplies of any kind to donate for the relief of the sufferers by the flood, will please send their contributions to Harry C. Campbell, Committee Room, second floor, City Hall, Allegheny, or to Mrs. Carnahan, postmaster, Temperanceville, where all of said donations will be received and properly credited.

By order of the Executive Committee.

Notes Among the Ruins.

A number of people have recovered from the shock, somewhat, and are repairing their houses or rebuilding.

John Beck and Frank Hopkins of Co. B. were arrested and sent to the armory yesterday for unnecessary rudeness and unsoldiery conduct while doing guard duty. They will be court martialed.

Some of those who saved their clothing yesterday, found in washing the garments that the sand and dirt had ruined them so that they fell to rags in the washing.

The storm somewhat interfered with the fire alarm in Allegheny, and Superintendent McCandless has been busy since in getting it into order. It is now all right, except on Madison avenue, where the poles were washed down. Box 57 was washed entirely away and has not been found.

Mr. John P. Wacker yesterday furnished the Concord street gang of men, twenty-eight in number, with dinner

Alderman Reno's house over the sewer on O'Hara street was washed away, and yesterday he found among the ruins a bureau drawer, containing $95.

A German, who was sick in bed at the time of the flood, appeared at the Mayor's office yesterday and was sent to the Poor Farm.

One man who had just drawn eight thousand dollars out of bank to invest, mourns the loss of that and his home also. Another, by a similar circumstance, lost four thousand dollars and his home.

Outside Relief.

Last night the Mayor received a dispatch from Mr. Solomon Stein, Canal street, New York, authorizing him to draw for one hundred dollars. M. Stein also said he would secure subscriptions. A letter was also received from Fulton, Walker & Co, Philadelphia, contributing one hundred dollars.

Mr. Alex. Greenawald yesterday thought he "might do something among the drovers," and receiving a book made a tour of the droveyards. He realized $445.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company last night notified the Mayor that they would have one hundred men on the ground Saturday morning at eight o'clock, who would be ready to help in clearing the ruins.

Entertainments.

The choir of the North avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny, under the leadership of Prof. Burgess, will give an entertainment for the benefit of the sufferers in the Union Church, Pennsylvania avenue, next Tuesday evening. An attractive programme is being prepared, and aside from doing good, every attendant will have the benefit of an exceedingly fine entertainment.

The Allegheny Quartette Club have offered their services and will give one of their entertainments next Thursday evening in the North Avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny.

Taken From the River.

Yesterday morning the body of a boy was taken from the Allegheny river near Wood's Run, and brought to Taggart's undertaking establishment. It has not yet been identified.

Last night the bodies of two children were brought from Sewickley to Fairman & Co's. They had been found in the river at Shousetown, and had been buried by the shore, but were afterward taken up and brought to the city. They were so much decomposed that they were not recognizable, but one of them is thought to be the body of the boy O'Neill drowned in Saw Mill run.

Woods' Run.

Street Commissioner Hanna is busy about Woods' Run in getting matters righted there. The bridge at Hartman's has been repaired, also the one on Preble avenue. The one across Wilkins street is being repaired as speedily as possible.

The road at Superior Station is being filled up, and even now is passable for teams.

The Missing.

Mayor Fleming desires all parties having friends missing to so report at the Mayor's office, and to leave a full description of them so that when any bodies are found they may, if possible, be at once identified and taken to the proper place.

Issuing Attachments.

Yesterday a Deputy Sheriff was around in the flooded district issuing attachments on executions for debt. In some instances the houses of the debtors could not be found but the ground was there, and in other instances the debtors had gone beyond the reach of any human creditor. It is also said the executions were issued since the flood.

Disinfectant.

Mr. C. W. Cooper yesterday called on the Mayor and and proffered a donation of a ton of carbolate disinfectant for the Butchers Run district. The offer was accepted, and the donation will come into good use to-day.

Saw Mill Run.

Work at Saw Mill Run is progressing briskly, and the streets are now measurably passable and matters in that district are beginning to assume a more cheerful appearance.

Yesterday morning the remains of Miss Lizzie Jones were deposited in the cemetery at Mansfield. The body was found in the Ohio River. Her brother, a young man named George Jones, lost his life in trying to save hers.

The Gas Company have so far recovered from the injuries they received by the flood, that they think they will be able to commence operations inside of a week. Their gas tank, which was lying on its side on Monday and Tuesday, is again in its rightful position

The bridges are being repaired as fast as possible and in a short time travel will be uninterrupted.

The body found on Wednesday evening and supposed to be that of Mrs. McVey, turned out to be that of another victim. Yesterday morning a man from Mansfield claimed the body as that of a Mrs. Hoover, who was drowned in Whisky Run on Sunday night. The body was identified by a scar on her face, and by her ear rings. The remains were removed to Mansfield.

No additional bodies had been found up to latest accounts last night.

Yesterday morning a dispatch was received at the Pittsburgh Mayor's office, from John Irwin, President of the Personal Liberty Club of Steubenville, expressing sympathy with the sufferers by the flood, and authorizing the Mayor to draw on sight on the Club to the amount of one hundred dollars, through Sherrard, Mooney & Co.

Franklin Lodge No. 221, A. Y. M., last evening handed their subscription of $500 to Gen. Brown and Mr. G. Follansbee of the Fourth ward, Pittsburgh, Collecting Committee.

A STRANGE STORY.

The Woman in Black—A Foundling at Altoona—Pittsburgh Parties Said to be Interested.

The Altoona Tribune of yesterday says: Yesterday mention was made of the circumstances surrounding the finding of a negro infant on the portico stoop at the residence of a widow lady named Mrs. Confer, residing in the Fifth Ward. It will be remembered that mention was made of the arrival of a woman and child on the Philadelphia express train, Capt. E. W. Eisenbise, conductor, the evening previous, that she was seen leaving the depot in a northwesterly direction with the child in her arms; that she returned to the depot soon thereafter without the child; that she engaged in conversation with the night ticket agent and afterward went into the Logan House, registered her name as "Mrs. Shaw, Pittsburgh," took a room and requested to be called in time for the Pittsburgh express train the following morning. Now it so happened that Capt. E. W. Eisenbise was the conductor in charge of the train that bore the woman westward bound as well as the Philadelphia express train that brought her to the city.

At the depot last evening we met Mr. Eisenbise and inquired of him whether the woman in question, who was alleged to have been dressed in plain black, took passage on his train on Tuesday morning as was supposed. He replied that she had, and added that he had asked her what she had done with the negro babe. She replied in substance as follows: "As you doubtless know, I had a ticket that called for a first-class passage from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia. The mother of the child (which was a mulatto) died at the time of its birth, and her parents employed me to get it out of the way."

"The mother was a white woman and belonged to one of the most highly respected families in Pittsburgh. Her parents wanted me to take the child to Philadelphia, and bought me a ticket for that city, but I thought I could make way with it in Altoona as well, and I resolved to do so. I left it on a door stoop, but in what part of the city I do not know; it was several streets back of the railroad. A man and a lady had entered the house a few minutes before I left the baby there.

"After depositing the child on the stoop, I had proceeded but a short distance until I heard it commence to cry. I am a married woman, my husband is away from home, and I am anxious to get back before he gets back home. The father of the child was represented to me as being a negro. I am well acquainted with the family, which is very respectable. After I left the babe on the door stoop I returned to the Logan House, in Altoona, and ordered a room."

The women in question is reported to have been dressed in plain black. She had no baggage with her—nothing save a sun umbrella of a light color. She was a passenger on board the train upon its arrival at Pittsburgh. We might mention that she said considerable more than has been reported in these columns, but the late hour at which we close this item forbids any additional reference to her disclosures.

MILKMAN KILLED.

A Fatal Runaway Accident.

Yesterday morning a runaway attended with fatal consequences occurred on the New Brigton road, just outside the city limits. The victim was a man named Rapp, who was driving towards town when his horses became frightened and ran away. The result was that the wagon was demolished and Rapp thrown out and killed. He was picked up by some persons in the vicinity and taken back to his home, where an inquest was held and a verdict in accordance with the facts rendered.

The Peoples Savings Bank.

We publish elsewhere a very refreshing and creditable exhibition of the condition of the Peoples Savings Bank. This institution, as its statement clearly shows, ranks among the most solid and reliable of our savings banks, and challenges the confidence and patronage of depositors. Its investments, which are confined to bonds, mortgages and other valid securities, are made with that caution and prudence which ensures absolute security. Its officers are men of liberal financial attainments and of sterling integrity. Mr. Von Bonhorst, the Secretary and Treasurer, is known to the business community as a gentleman of superior abilities as a financier, and one in whom the public may safely repose unbounded confidence. His name is a tower of strength in monetary circles.

Cheaper Than Ever.

There is an idea current among some that goods of first class quality cannot be sold low, and that whenever anything is offered very cheap, it must be damaged or defective. But such is not the case with the boots and shoes in store at R. Taggart's, No. 129 Federal street, Allegheny City, for the quality of his goods is that of positive excellence, and his prices low, very low. Cheap is his business motto.

$10 to $100 invested in Stocks and Gold pays 200 per cent. a month. Send for particulars. Tumbridge & Co., Bankers, 2 Wall st., N.Y. d&s

PITTSBURGH'S STREETS.

Meeting of the Street Committee Last Night—Taking Action in Reference to Damages Done by the Flood.

The Street Committee met last evening in the Common Council Chamber on special call to take action in reference to the damages caused by the flood, Mr. Fulton in the chair.

A petition was presented asking a change in the grade of Forbes street at Stevenson street. Referred to a sub-committee.

Petitions were presented setting forth damages ceused by what is claimed as a defective sewer drop on Forty-eighth street during the flood on Sunday. They were Kane & Bro. $1,200, F. Hebling, Sr., $1,500, and F. Hebling, Jr., $640 50. Read and tabled.

The Clerk read reports from the Street Commissioners, as follows:

DAMAGE IN THE FIRST DISTRICT.

PITTSBURG, July 30, 1874.

To the President and Members of the Street Committee:

GENTLEMEN:—I respectfully report that the damage done by the flood of Sunday, June 26th, in my district was inconsiderable, the whole being "wash-outs" from the hill districts and the accumulation of mud, etc. The sewer drops, generally, were choked up with dirt, while on the newly repaired streets the cobble stones, gravel, etc., were forced away. These latter were Tenth, Eleventh, Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets in Bayardstown. Some sixty feet of the box sewer on Twenty-seventh street was torn out. The total damages will not exceed five hundred dollars. Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. HUNTER,
Street Commissioner, First District.

DAMAGE IN SECOND DISTRICT.

PITTSBURGH, July 30, 1874.

To the Chairman and Members of the Street Committee:

GENTLEMEN: I would respectfully report that in the district which I represent there was very considerable damage done by the great flood of Sunday, 26th inst. The damages extend almost over the whole district, which is the hill portion of the city. Many streets were injured by the tearing up of the cobble stones, while great damage was done to sewers completed and in course of construction. I note the following:

Clark street, some twenty-six feet of the paving torn out.

Seventh avenue was cleared of cobble stones, gravel, &c., from Fountain street to Webster avenue.

Webster avenue, the gutters were almost completely torn out from Seventh avenue to Crawford street.

Fulton street was damaged from Caldwell street to Center avenue.

Logan street, from Caldwell to Fifth avenue, was terribly riddled.

Reed street, about one hundred feet torn up.

Fifth avenue extension, while not damaged was for squares covered with debris from the Hill street.

In numerous other streets holes were here and there torn in the pavements.

I calculate the cost of repairs for streets at from $1,500 to $2,000.

Try street sewer, old, was broken in several places, but will be abandoned in view of the rapid completion of the new one now under construction.

The new sewer on Troy street was damaged near the Connellsville Railway tracks. Cost upon contractor.

The sewer being constructed on Dinwiddie street was very sersously damaged, over two hundred feet being almost torn from its place. Loss upon contractors.

The new Forbes street sewer, completed one week before, but not taken from the contractors' hands, was broken at Marion street and east of Stevenson street. Loss upon contractors.

The Sukes run sewer, on Watson's line, had some twenty feet of the cover lifted off. Loss on city.

The Clark street sewer, about twenty-six feet broken out, and must be replaced.

The Seventh avenue sewer from Grant street to the railroad tunnel was filled with mud, gravel, &c., and must be cleared at cost of city.

A very large amount of mud, gravel, paving, stones, brick, &c., was washed upon the lower streets of this district, which it has taken quite a time to remove. I endeavored as speedily as possible to remove all obstructions to travel upon the streets. I am pleased to report that contractors generally were prompt in removing debris and prosecuting their work. I regret to say that it is likely that a new bottom will have to be placed in Fifth avenue sewer from Old avenue to Washington street, which will involve a large expenditure.

The cost to the city for sewer repairs cannot as yet, be estimated.

Respectfully submitted,
GEORGE LINDERMAN,
Street Commissioner,
Second District.

DAMAGES IN THE THIRD DISTRICT.

PITTSBURGH, July 30, 1874.

Gentlemen of the Street Committee:

I respectfully submit for your consideration a report of the damages in my district:

The sewer on Thirty-third street washed away about thirty feet with the drop on the corner of Lafayette alley.

The drop and connection pipe broken on Forty-eighth street sewer at Butler and Center streets.

Also Forty-eighth and Center streets washed away about sixty feet.

Forty-seventh street is badly torn up from Butler to Center streets.

Winebiddle street is much damaged. The bank at the break is thirty feet deep.

The Quarry road in the Eighteenth ward is blockaded with the wash from the banks.

The Morningside road is not so bad. The water tables in places are stopped up.

Laurel avenue is washed away very badly on the hill.

Liberty street in the Sixteenth ward, is in bad condition.

Pearl street is very bad—board walks washed away.

Drop at Forty-second and Center streets damaged.

Drop at Hazlett and Butler streets damaged.

It will cost $4,000 to repair what has been damaged.

WM. HOSACK,
Street Commissioner, Third District.

DAMAGES IN THE FIFTH DISTRICT,
PITTSBURGH, July 30th, 1874.

Gentlemen of the Street Committee:

I respectfully submit to your consideration a report of the damage in my district. The sewers on Twenty-first street was bursted; the curb and cobble stone on Twenty-sixth street has been torn out and also on Twenty-second street. The water tables in my entire district are filled up with sediment. In my opinion it will take from $1,200 to $1,500 to repair and put in as good condition as they were previous to the recent rains.

THOMAS J. EVANS,
Street Commissioner, Fifth District.

DAMAGES IN THE SIXTH DISTRICT.

Commissioner Evans of the Sixth District, reported that he had already repaired damages to the extent of $400, and yet one-third of the dirt had not been taken away from the streets. He estimated that to repair all damages would require an outlay of about $1,500.

DAMAGES IN THE SEVENTH DISTRICT.

To the Street Committee:

GENTLEMEN: Below please find report of damages in the Seventh District by the flood of Sunday night:

New iron bridge on Main street	$11,000 00
Wooden bridge on Walnut street	200 00
Three wooden bridges on Minis road	800 00
Wooden bridge on Hahn street	450 00
Wooden bridge near Bell's tavern	100 00
Wooden bridge on Carson street	1,000 00

One thousand feet cobble stone pavement on Chestnut street.

Twelve hundred feet Wykoff pavement on Main and Walnut streets.

All the culverts in the district filled or partly filled.

Shaler street impassable.

Woodville street nearly washed away.

It is nearly impossible to form a correct estimate of what it would cost to put the streets in this district as in good as they were before the flood, but it will not be less than $40,000 including bridges.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN GRAHAM,
Street Commissioner Seventh District.

Which were read and referred to a SubCommittee of Seven in conjunction with the City Engineer, with power to make the necessary repairs in extreme cases.

Mr. West moved that the committee examine and report on the condition of the sewer on Twenty-first street, which had been destroyed by the flood. Prevailed.

Mr. Epping presented a resolution for the appointment of a sub-committee to examine and report on the extension of the Thirty third street sewer to the Pennsylvania Railroad culvert. Adopted.

The Street Commissioner of the Second District was directed to put two sewer drops in Stevenson street, to connect with the Ann street sewer.

The chair presented a proposal from C. W. Lewis to re pave Seventh avenue for fifty cents per square yard. Referred to the Sub Committee of Seven.

Adjourned.

CURING VERSUS COBBLING.

There are many medicines that give transient relief in sickness without touching the source and seat of complaint. Hostetters Stomach Bitters is not one of these. The great tonic and restorative does not cobble the diseased and enfeebled system. It is not a mere palliative, that only temporarily controls a few unpleasant symptoms. No; its invigorating, regulating, restorative principle penetrates to the very source of the difficulty in the fluids and solids of the body, and hence its cures are radical and thorough. In dyspepsia it strengthens the stomach, in liver complaint it regulates the flow of bile, in constipation it promotes a punctual habit of body, in nervous ailments it tones the sentients and motive fibres, in rheumatism it counteracts pain, and in cases of general debility rehabilitates the emaciated frame.

"THE SCANDLE."

A Well-Known Contributor Puts His Reflections Into Verse.

The strange revelations which are now engaging public attention in reference to a famous preacher in the East, have awakened the serious reflections of our philosophic townsman, Mr. J. McKee, whose facile pen is always ready with appropriate comments upon current events. In this instance, his contribution to the Beecher-Tiltonian literature, is especially interesting, as the gifted writer has chosen the medium of poetry, through which to convey his burning thoughts. The Shaksperian stanzas furnished below, do credit, as much to his peculiar genius for giving sound advice, as to the exceeding benevolence of his heart, evidenced in his charitable view of the situation. But to the poetry.

The dies for embossing the postage stamps on the envelopes and wrappers are to be executed to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, in the best style, and they are to be provided, renewed, and kept in order at the expense of the contractor. The Department reserves the right of requiring new dies for any stamps or denominations of stamps not now used, and any changes of dies or colors shall be made without extra charge

Before entering into a contract the successful bidder may be required to prepare and submit new dies for the approval of the Department. The use of the present dies may or may not be continued.

The dies, as soon as made, shall become the property of the United States, and shall be safely and securely kept by the contractor, and should the use of any of them be temporarily or permanently discontinued they shall be promptly turned over to the Post Office Department, or its agent, as the Postmaster General may direct.

The newspaper wrappers to be packed in boxes, to contain not less than two hundred and fifty each. Wooden cases, containing envelopes or wrappers, to be transported by water routes, must be provided with suitable water-proofing. The whole to be done under the inspection and direction of an agent of the Department.

C., or at the office of an agent duly authorized to inspect and receive the same; the place of delivery to be at the option of the Postmaster General, and the cost of delivering, as well as all expense of storing, packing, addressing, labeling, and water-proofing to be paid by the contractor.

OFFICE ROOMS AND FURNITURE.

An agent of the Department will have supervision of the manufacture, storage, and issue of the stamped envelopes and wrappers, and he shall at all times have full and free access to the apartments, safes and vaults where the same are manufactured and stored, for the purpose of inspecting the same; and the contractor shall furnish him and his clerks suitable office and desk-room, for the transaction of the business of his agency, without cost to the Government.

The contractor may also be required to furnish, without charge, suitable and properly furnished rooms for use of the post office in registering packages of envelopes and wrappers to be forwarded through the mails.

STOCK ON HAND.

The contractor shall at all times keep on hand a stock of the several kinds and denominations of envelopes and wrappers, subject to the control of the agent of the Department, in all stages of manufacture, sufficient to meet all orders of the Department, and to provide against any and all contingencies that may be likely to occur during the existence of the contract, so that each and every order of the Department may be promptly filled.

AGREEMENT—BONDS.

Within ten days after the contract has been awarded the successful bidder shall enter into an agreement in writing with the Postmaster General to faithfully observe and keep the terms, conditions, and requirements set forth in this advertisement, according to their true intent and meaning, and shall make, execute, and deliver, subject to the approval and acceptance of the Postmaster General, bonds with good and sufficient sureties in the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, ($200,000,) as a forfeiture for the faithful performance of said agreement or contract, according to the provisions and subject to the liabilities of the seventeenth section of an act of Congress entitled "An act legalizing and making appropriations for such necessary objects as have been usually included in the general appropriation bills without authority of law, and to fix and provide for certain incidental expenses of the Departments and officers of the Government, and for other purposes." (United States Statutes at Large, volume 5, page 526,) approved August 26, 1842, which act provides that in case the contractor shall fail to comply with the terms of the contract he and his sureties shall be liable for the forfeiture specified in such contract as liquidated damages, to be sued for in the name of the United States, in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

If the contractor to whom the first award may be made should fail to enter into agreement and give satisfactory bonds, as herein provided, then the award may be annulled and the contract let to the next lowest responsible bidder, and so on until the required agreement and bonds are executed; and such next lowest bidder shall be required to fulfill every stipulation embraced herein, as if he were the original party to whom the contract was awarded.

The agreement will also provide that if at any time during the continuance of the contract the sureties shall die, or become irresponsible for the entire penalty of the bond, the Postmaster General shall have the right to require a new bond with additional and sufficient sureties, which the contractor shall furnish to the acceptance of the Postmaster General within ten days after notice, and in default thereof the contract may be annulled.

CONTRACT NOT ASSIGNABLE.

The contract cannot, in any case, be lawfully transferred or assigned.

RESERVATION.

The Postmaster General reserves the right to reject any and all bids if, in his judgment, the interests of the Government require it; also the right to annul the contract if, in his opinion, there shall be a failure at any time to perform faithfully any of its stipulations, or in case of a willful attempt to impose upon the Department stamped envelopes and wrappers inferior to those now in use.
